MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE

Dear Parishioners:

Next Saturday, June 24, 2023, our united parish will celebrate the completion of the mission of one of our parish schools, the parish school of Saint Bartholomew. For over a century, beginning in 1921, Saint Bartholomew School has educated countless young men and women and formed them in our faith. Of course, the mission of Saint Bartholomew School, inaugurated and faithfully served for many years by the Kentucky Dominican Sisters and later continued by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, continues in the school merger with Pope Francis Global Academy.

Before our parish school leaves the Saint Bartholomew campus, we pause to express our gratitude for the life and learning that brought so many blessings to our parish for over a century. Our celebration of thanksgiving takes the special form of that which we are calling "Bart's Bash," an event that begins with the celebration of the regularly scheduled Saturday evening Vigil Mass at 4:30 PM in Saint Bartholomew Church. After Mass, an evening celebration will be held under the big top, a tent, in our parish parking lots. Food will be served that will remind our alumni of the pizza and hot dog lunches of their school days. Other local food vendors will also be available. Tours of both the Addison Street and Patterson Street facilities will be provided. But, of greatest importance, will be the reunion of so many of our graduates.

Whether you are a graduate of Saint Bartholomew school or not, please join us in celebration of the completion of our school's mission and its continuation at Pope Francis Global Academy. I look forward to seeing you under the Big Top!

Father Mike O'Connell

MENSAJE DEL PADRE MIKE

Estimados feligreses:

El próximo sábado 24 de junio de 2023, nuestra parroquia unida celebrará la finalización de la misión de una de nuestras escuelas parroquiales, la escuela parroquial de San Bartolomé. Durante más de un siglo, a partir de 1921, la Escuela San Bartolomé ha educado a innumerables hombres y mujeres jóvenes y los ha formado en nuestra fe. Por supuesto, la misión de la Escuela San Bartolomé, inaugurada y fielmente servida durante muchos años por las Hermanas Dominicanas de Kentucky y luego continuada por las Hermanas de la Caridad de la Santísima Virgen María, continúa en la fusión de la escuela con Pope Francis Global Academy.

Antes de que nuestra escuela parroquial abandone el campus de San Bartolomé, hacemos una pausa para expresar nuestra gratitud por la vida y el aprendizaje que trajo tantas bendiciones a nuestra parroquia durante más de un siglo. Nuestra celebración de acción de gracias toma la forma especial de lo que llamamos "Bart's Bash", un evento que comienza con la celebración de la Misa de Vigilia programada regularmente el sábado por la noche a las 4:30 en la Iglesia de San Bartolomé. Después de la misa, se llevará a cabo una celebración nocturna bajo la carpa grande, una carpa, en los estacionamientos de nuestra parroquia. Se servirá comida que recordará a nuestros ex alumnos los almuerzos de pizza y perros calientes de sus días escolares. Otros vendedores de comida local también estarán disponibles. Se proporcionarán recorridos por las instalaciones de Addison Street y Patterson Street. Pero, de mayor importancia, será la reunión de tantos de nuestros graduados.

Ya sea que se haya graduado de la escuela St. Bartholomew o no, únase a nosotros para celebrar la finalización de la misión de nuestra escuela y su continuación en Pope Francis Global Academy. ¡Espero verte bajo la Gran Carpa!

P. Mike O'Connell

GOSPEL MEDITATION

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In the backyard of the house where I live with other priests, there is a lemon tree which produces a huge amount of fruit. One evening in the spring I needed some lemons for a chicken dish. I glanced from the kitchen and saw the tree bursting with large, bright, gorgeous lemons, hanging thick on seemingly every branch. Turning to Father Bob (I'll change his name to protect the innocent) who sat on the couch, I said, "Father, could you pick a few lemons for me?" He said sure and into the backyard he went. He returned a few minutes later empty-handed. "John, there's no lemons. Sorry." I said, "What are you talking about?" I looked again and saw the grapefruit tree on the other side of the yard, which had recently been picked clean of fruit. He didn't see the abundant fruit because he was looking in the wrong place!

Like Father Bob, we sadly don't see the fruit all around us. We think that the culture is spiraling down, young people avoid church, and the future looks bleak. Why go out into the world and work? The world looks like a fruitless tree.

Jesus doesn't see things that way. This week he tells us, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few." Look again: there is spiritual fruit hanging all around us! The lonely ready to be visited. The sick ready to be healed. The forgotten ready to be remembered. The poor ready to be treated with dignity. The sad ready to be consoled. The young ready for the Gospel. So, let's ask the Lord to send laborers to get to work. And he will. He might send you and me. Just remember to look at the correct trees.

— Father John Muir

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLIC

11º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Hay mucha gente cansada y desilusionada, están ya abatidos sin esperanza. Tantos migrantes que salen de sus países en busca de mejor calidad de vida. Buscan líderes que hablen con la verdad, que los guíen y los orienten. En tiempos de Jesús, y ahora pasa lo mismo, la gente caminaba sin rumbo, como ovejas sin pastor. Por eso Jesús ordena a sus apóstoles: "No vayan a tierras de paganos ni entren en pueblos de samaritanos. Diríjense más bien a las ovejas perdidas del pueblo de Israel (Mateo 10,5). Los envió para sanar enfermos, resucitar muertos, limpiar a los leprosos y echar demonios. Esa era la tarea: ayudar a la gente a liberarse. "La cosecha es abundante, pero los trabajadores son pocos. Rueguen, pues, al dueño de la cosecha que envíe trabajadores a recoger su cosecha" (Mateo 9, 37-38).

Se necesitan pastores fieles y trabajadores que ayuden a las personas a encontrar a Jesús. La comunidad debe rezar para tener vocaciones sacerdotales y religiosas, a la vez que laicos comprometidos con el Evangelio, que sean testigos y den testimonio de lo que predicán. "No estamos llamados a servir solo para tener una recompensa, sino para imitar a Dios, que se hizo siervo por amor nuestro. Y no estamos llamados a servir de vez en cuando, sino a vivir sirviendo. El servicio es un estilo de vida, más aún, resume en sí todo el estilo de vida cristiana: servir a Dios en la adoración y la oración; estar abiertos y disponibles; amar concretamente al prójimo; trabajar con entusiasmo por el bien común" (Papa Francisco).

WHY DO WE DO THAT - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Question: I've noticed that when I go to Mass at different parishes, sometimes people say and do different things. Why is that?

Answer: The Mass in its current form has taken shape over the course of 2,000 years. Over time, traditions, structures, and prayers have been put into place. There are certain rubrics for the Mass that are normative wherever you go. This means you could attend Mass in Malawi or Thailand or Italy and still watch the same basic liturgy unfold, even if you don't understand the language.

There may be some cultural differences from place to place, things that aren't specifically listed. For example, in the United States most people go up for Communion in a nice, neat line. In Europe, everyone gets up around the same time. It's a bit of a free-for-all!

Some people might take it upon themselves to change things individually. People may not like something that feels too "liberal" or "conservative," and they may take a well-meaning stance in the opposite direction. When people (including the presiders) do things that are distracting or change the liturgy, it introduces an element that breaks the unity of the assembled community. The important thing to remember is that we gather as the Body of Christ to celebrate the Eucharist. If you are confused, ask! If you are frustrated, pray for the spirit of charity.

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY WOMEN'S CLUB

Scholarship Winner

Throughout the year, the Women's Club sponsors fundraisers to raise money to offer an eighth-grade girl who plans to attend a Catholic high school a scholarship. To be considered for the scholarship, the girls must submit an essay stating why it is important to the girl to go to a Catholic high school, and how she has helped her school and her community the last number of years.

This year's winner is Chloe Ranzzoni. She will receive $2,500 to help with her tuition. In her essay, Chloe mentioned that she started her Catholic education at the age of four at Saint Pascal School. The Catholic education has created a foundation of faith and as taught her the importance of spirituality and academic progress.

Chloe has helped with many service projects including Feed My Starving Children, collecting for the homeless as well as writing letters to sick children and seniors in nursing homes. She has also participated in the Giving Tree and her family sponsors a girl through Worldwide Vision.

Chloe is a strong Catholic and is excited to begin her next journey of faith and service at Resurrection High School.

At the eighth grade breakfast, Anais Escobedo, one of the previous winners, came up to us and thanked us for the scholarship money she received a number of years ago.

Your name here

At county fairs there always seems to be a stand where someone offers to write your name on a grain of rice. As novel a proposition as that is, perhaps there are better places to have our names inscribed. Scripture mentions a "Book of Life" eight times. It's described as the registry of the just—a desirable place to be listed. Martyrdom is one sure way to make the registry and promoting the gospel is another. Simply put, bring Jesus to others. Witness with your values, decisions, and resources. Add your name to the book.

Take your place in paradise

A thousand years ago, Italian monk Saint Romuald founded a religious order, the Camaldolese, that blended the Christian hermit tradition into monastic life. His monks lived in individual cells but participated in some communal activities. Romuald's rule of life put solitude and contemplation and meditation on the Psalms at the center of his order's spirituality. He wrote, "Sit in your cell as in paradise. Put the whole world behind you and forget it. Watch your thoughts like a good fisherman watching for fish. The path you must follow is in the Psalms—never leave it." Tap into this tradition and try finding a place of solitude and, with the Psalms handy, carve out some quiet time for contemplation in your busy day. .

We are one vast body in this one vast Lord

On this day in 1926, the 28th International Eucharistic Congress opened in Chicago, the first one held in the United States. Mass at Soldier Field attracted an estimated 400,000 people gathered in and around the stadium and featured a "Nuns and Women's Choir of 10,000 Voices." At its conclusion, 750,000 pilgrims joined a 40-mile eucharistic procession—on foot or by car, bus, and rail—to St. Mary of the Lake Seminary in Mundelein, Illinois. A logistical marvel of mass transit, this gathering was as important for Chicago as it was for the U.S. church. Let these words, from 2021's international congress, be your meditation today: "He is our Lord and our Master, our friend and our food, our healer and our peace." .

Your mission

The brief life of Saint Aloysius Gonzaga (he died at 23) is instructive for all who hope to raise or nurture young faith. Though he was raised in royal privilege, a book about the experiences of Jesuit missionaries in India inspired Aloysius to leave his comfortable world behind and dedicate his life to God. As it turned out, his mission field would be closer to home, as he gave his life serving the sick during a terrible plague in Rome in 1591. Young people are inspired by heroic examples of service. Be that inspiration.

Discipleship still can be costly

Sir (and Saint) Thomas More, the British humanist and statesman, stared down King Henry VIII and paid the price. He was beheaded in 1535 for refusing to support the king's desire to control the Catholic Church. The 1960 play (and later film) A Man for All Seasons kept alive More's considerable reputation as martyr and man of letters. More's final words affirmed that he was the "king's good servant and God's first." Most of us won't have to die for our faith, but many will pay a price for doing the right and faithful thing in a difficult situation. What has your faith cost you?

'Tis a gift

The classic rock song "Simple Man" was written by two musicians who had recently lost loved ones: a grandmother and a mother. As the two were sharing stories and advice from these women, the verses of a song began to emerge. The women's advice was simple: Remember God, slow down in life, follow your heart, and find everything you need in your soul. Living simply was key for these women, and it is key for our life as Christians. As you encounter the gospels in your prayer and during Mass, what values of simple living do you hear woven into its verses? .

Find your voice

Zechariah, father of John the Baptist, stands in for all of us who fall silent when our doubt overcomes our faith. Along the path of life where we sometimes lose our way, it's difficult to trust that God is with us always. When Zechariah comes to his senses and realizes God is indeed active in his life through the wondrous birth of John, he is able to speak again. So it is with us. We find our authentic voice when we trust in God.
