MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE

Dear Parishioners of Our Lady of the Rosary!

I regret to inform you that we will be losing the generous assistance of our resident, Father Abraham Jacob, who will be leaving Chicago in a few weeks to take a new assignment as pastor in Houston. As many of you know, Father Abraham has served as the fulltime chaplain at Community First Hospital at Addison and Central for several years now. During that time, he has resided with us, first at Our Lady of Victory, then at Saint Pascal. Several of our families have expressed their profound gratitude for Father Abraham's services, especially those provided to them during critical moments at the hospital. I, personally, am grateful for the kindness he showed to the family of our beloved Deacon Gene Kummerer when the Lord called him suddenly home.

Father Abraham Jacob has been a most generous resource in assisting with Mass when needed, mostly at Saint Pascal, but also on occasion at Saint Bartholomew, and certainly for many years at Our Lady of Victory. In addition to the assistance given to Our Lady of the Rosary Parish and his fulltime ministry at Community First, Father Abraham also served two suburban parish communities of his Syro Malabar rite. The parish in the Houston Metropolitan area Father Abraham will serve as pastor is also of the Syro Malabar rite. As much as I will miss him, I am very grateful that Father Abraham's superiors will put him to good use as pastor of his new parish. He is a true servant of the Lord and a blessing for the Church.

We will honor Father Abraham Jacob at the 4:00 PM Mass on Saturday evening, September 9, 2023, at Saint Pascal Church. A reception will follow.

For future reference, Father Abraham Jacob may be reached at the following address:

St. Mary's Knanaya Catholic Church
6400 W. Fuqua Drive
Missouri City, Texas 77489

Father. Mike O'Connell, Pastor

MENSAJE DEL PADRE MIKE

¡Queridos feligreses de Nuestra Señora del Rosario!

Lamento informarles que perderemos la generosa ayuda de nuestro residente, el Padre Abraham Jacob, quien dejará Chicago en unas pocas semanas para tomar una nueva asignación como pastor en Houston. Como muchos de ustedes saben, el Padre Abraham ha servido como capellán en Community First Hospital en Addison y Central durante varios años. Durante ese tiempo, ha residido con nosotros, primero en Nuestra Señora de la Victoria, luego en San Pascual. Varias de nuestras familias han expresado su profunda gratitud por los servicios del Padre Abraham, especialmente los que se les brindaron durante los momentos críticos en el hospital. Yo, personalmente, estoy agradecido por la bondad que mostró a la familia de nuestro amado diácono Gene Kummerer cuando el Señor lo llamó a su casa celestial.

El Padre Abraham Jacob ha sido un recurso muy generoso para ayudar con la Misa cuando fue necesario, principalmente en San Pascual, pero también en ocasiones en San Bartolomé, y ciertamente durante muchos años en Nuestra Señora de la Victoria. Además de la asistencia brindada a la Parroquia de Nuestra Señora del Rosario y su ministerio en Community First Hospital, el Padre Abraham también sirvió a dos comunidades parroquiales suburbanas de su rito Syro Malabar. La parroquia en el área metropolitana de Houston, el Padre Abraham servirá como párroco también es del rito Syro Malabar. Por mucho que lo extrañe, estoy muy agradecido de que los superiores del Padre Abraham lo utilicen como párroco de su nueva parroquia. Él es un verdadero siervo del Señor y una bendición para la Iglesia.

Honraremos al Padre Abraham Jacob en la Misa de las 4:00 PM el sábado por la noche, 9 de septiembre de 2023, en la Iglesia St. Pascal. A continuación se celebrará una recepción.

Para referencia futura, el Padre Abraham Jacob puede ser contactado en la siguiente dirección:

Saint Mary Knanaya Catholic Church
6400 W. Fuqua Drive
Missouri City, TX 77489

P. Mike O'Connell, Pastor

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Today, we hear Jesus say to us, "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." The challenge is to let go so God can lead us.

During the first weekend of each month, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society collects non-perishable food for its pantry. Items may be placed in the blue barrel inside the Saint Pascal Church building at the Dakin Street exit during that time, or any time that the church is open.

Domingo 22 del Tiempo Ordinario

Como Pedro en el Evangelio de hoy, podemos encontrar que cuando abrimos nuestros ojos para ver, nuestros oídos para escuchar y nuestros corazones para experimentar la presencia de Jesús en nuestra vida diaria, Dios se revela a nosotros.

Durante el primer fin de semana de cada mes, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl recolecta alimentos no perecederos para su despensa. Los artículos se pueden colocar en el barril azul dentro del edificio de la Iglesia de San Pascal en la salida de la calle Dakin durante ese tiempo, o en cualquier momento que la iglesia esté abierta.

It's a wonderful life

Our days are engulfed in chaos, conflict, and dispiriting news. Then along comes a director like Frank Capra (1897-1991), churning out what have been called "fantasies of good will," imposing order with his ragged little messiahs who take meaningful stands against king-sized injustices. A self-described "Christmas Catholic," Capra fought his moral battles on the silver screen. He believed each person is "essentially good, a living atom of divinity.... Films must be made to say these things, to counteract the violence and the meanness, to buy time to demobilize the hatreds." Take your stand. Tell a story of hope.

Come aside and rest awhile

In a Prayer for Labor Day, the U.S. bishops invite us to ask God: "Make a place in our hearts for compassion to the men and women who labor tirelessly for basic necessities." Labor has always held a place of dignity within our faith. Scripture tells us that the laborer is worthy of his hire (1 Tim. 5:18), and many a church document, including Rerum Novarum, outline the value of workers and their work: "Justice, therefore, demands that the interests of the working classes should be carefully watched over, so that they who contribute so largely to the advantage of the community may themselves share in the benefits which they create." And, today, in honor of our labor, it's time to take a break.

The first daughter of charity

It's not every day that a Catholic saint is honored with a United Nations resolution. But then, Mother Teresa is hardly an everyday saint. The U.N. honored the famous nun from Kolkata, known the world over for her hands-on care of the poor, with a resolution in 2013. It declared that on the September 5th anniversary of Mother Teresa's death each year, the world would now observe an International Day of Charity. Let's take her at her word: "Love is not patronizing and charity isn't about pity, it is about love. Charity and love are the same—with charity you give love, so don't just give money but reach out your hand instead."

Readings: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6, 9-11; Luke 4:31-37 (432).

Pray for the persecuted and forgotten

On this day, many Christians of the Eastern tradition celebrate the feast of Saint Donatian and his companions, a group of lesser-known fifth-century martyrs driven out of North Africa by the Arian King Huneric, who persecuted a great many Trinitarians for their faith. Though we may not today face death for our confession, many of our brothers and sisters around the world do, and it is for them that we must pray with the help of Donatian and all who died for the name of Christ. Even more, we are tasked to help them materially if we can, since—as the Lord says—whatsoever we do for the least of his siblings, we do for him.

Readings: Colossians 1:1-8; Luke 4:38-44 (433).

School days, Golden Rule days

It's back-to-school season. Learning is foundational to our democracy and also to informed faith. In 2,000 years' time, Christianity has overcome countless heresies (a type of twisting of the belief) and accumulated many saints, martyrs, stories, and traditions. With school back in session, consider sending yourself to "school" to learn more about your own religion. Check out study materials from the U.S. Catholic bishops and formed.org, a program both individuals and parishes can use for faith formation. Make a choice to grow in wisdom and understanding.

Readings: Colossians 1:9-14; Luke 5:1-11 (434).

A nativity set for the ages

The church officially celebrates three Nativities: the Nativity of Jesus, the Son of God (Christmas); the Nativity of Saint John the Baptist (24 June); and the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary (8 September). These events tell us everything we need to know about God, faith, and the path to salvation. Through Jesus' Incarnation, we learn that God is with us—always and everywhere. Through John's witness we come to understand that we are not God—not even close—and we must prepare ourselves to welcome God's great goodness into our lives. And through Mary, we are shown the meaning of true discipleship—how to answer God's call and follow Christ through the joyful, sorrowful, and luminous mysteries of our lives in faith. Celebrate this dynamic trio by living in their light.

Give us this day some peace

"Racism has been part of the social fabric of America since its European colonization. Whether it be the tragic past of Native Americans, Mexicans, Puerto Ricans, or Blacks, the story is one of slavery, peonage, economic exploitation, brutal repression, and cultural neglect." This observation from the 1979 bishops' pastoral Brothers and Sisters to Us is why the church in the United States has established today as a "Day of Prayer for Peace in Our Communities" to promote healing of the racial divides of our nation. Make an honest examination of conscience regarding your thoughts, words, and deeds toward people of other ethnic and racial backgrounds.
