MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE / MENSAJE DEL PADRE MIKE

Dear Parishioners!

October is here and activities associated with our annual fundraiser, "The Catacombs" haunted house are well underway. Once again, our incredible team of volunteers have gone far beyond the call of duty to provide us with still another outstanding fright fest. Although, "The Catacombs" make no explicit reference to the Devil or the Evil One, voices of concern have been raised by some in the neighborhood about the appropriateness of a church sponsored haunted house. These voices were able to get the ear of my immediate superiors, who understandably asked why we are doing that which we are doing at the haunted house.

I assured my boss that "The Catacombs" in no way promoted the cause of Lucifer or any of the fallen angels. I expressed my profound respect and gratitude for the incredible hard work and high level of talent our volunteers bring to this event. Last year, "The Catacombs" netted $68,000 for the support of the school. It would be wonderful if we could surpass that which we were able to do last Halloween.

My friend, Father Paul Seaman, pastor of St. Pascal from 2005 to 2017, believes that St. Pascal has been the recipient of funds raised by the annual haunted house for possibly thirty years. When I told him of my conversation with my superior, he told me that he had received similar messages in his time. He expressed his regret that some fail to properly understand Halloween from an American perspective. From this perspective, Halloween is simply an opportunity to have fun frightening one another. At least as we Americans observe Halloween, the holiday and the events associated with it, including our "Catacombs" are about having fun. I would encourage our families to simply enjoy the fright fest created by our generous volunteers for our late October celebration. Happy Halloween!

Queridos feligreses!

Octubre está aquí y las actividades asociadas con nuestra recaudación de fondos anual, la casa embrujada "Las Catacumbas" están en marcha. Una vez más, nuestro increíble equipo de voluntarios ha ido mucho más allá de la llamada del deber para brindarnos otro festival de miedo excepcional. Aunque "Las Catacumbas" no hacen referencia explícita al Diablo o al Maligno, algunos en el vecindario han levantado voces de preocupación sobre la idoneidad de una casa embrujada patrocinada por la iglesia. Estas voces fueron capaces de llegar a oídos de mis superiores inmediatos, quienes comprensiblemente preguntaron por qué estamos haciendo lo que estamos haciendo en la casa embrujada.

Le aseguré a mi jefe que "Las Catacumbas" de ninguna manera promovía la causa de Lucifer ni de ninguno de los ángeles caídos. Expresé mi profundo respeto y gratitud por el increíble trabajo duro y el alto nivel de talento que nuestros voluntarios aportan a este evento. El año pasado, "Las Catacumbas" recaudó $68,000 para el apoyo de la escuela. Sería maravilloso si pudiéramos superar lo que pudimos hacer el pasado Halloween.

Mi amigo, el padre Paul Seaman, párroco de San Pascal de 2005 a 2017, cree que San Pascal ha sido el receptor de los fondos recaudados por la casa embrujada anual durante posiblemente treinta años. Cuando le conté mi conversación con mi superior, me dijo que había recibido mensajes similares en su época. Expresó su pesar por el hecho de que algunos no entiendan adecuadamente Halloween desde una perspectiva estadounidense. Desde esta perspectiva, Halloween es simplemente una oportunidad para divertirse asustándose unos a otros. Al menos cuando los estadounidenses celebramos Halloween, la festividad y los eventos asociados con ella, incluidas nuestras "Catacumbas", se tratan de divertirse. Animo a nuestras familias a que simplemente disfruten del festival de miedo creado por nuestros generosos voluntarios para nuestra celebración de finales de octubre.

¡Feliz Halloween!

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus say: "Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Please help the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul to bring the love and mercy of Jesus to those who feel left out and abandoned.

During the first weekend of each month, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society collects non-perishable food for its pantry. Items may be placed in the blue barrel inside the Saint Pascal Church building at the Dakin Street exit during that time, or any time that the church is open.

Vigésimo Sexto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario:

En el Evangelio de hoy escuchamos a Jesús decir: "Muchos son invitados, pero pocos son elegidos".

Por favor, ayude a la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl a llevar el amor y la misericordia de Jesús a aquellos que se sienten excluidos y abandonados.

Durante el primer fin de semana de cada mes, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl recolecta alimentos no perecederos para su despensa. Los artículos se pueden colocar en el barril azul dentro del edificio de la Iglesia de San Pascal en la salida de la calle Dakin durante ese tiempo, o en cualquier momento que la iglesia esté abierta.

Acompañenos a rezar el Santo Rosario todos los Domingos en la Iglesia San.Pascual a las 5:00 PM.

Please join us to pray the rosary after the 8:30 AM morning Mass Monday through Saturday at Saint Pascal Church.

How Witnessing Domestic Violence Affects Children

Preschoolers who witness domestic violence, may revert to the habits of younger children: thumb sucking, bedwetting, increased crying, and whining.

School-aged children can develop anti-social traits, struggle with guilt over the abuse witnessed and take on the blame for the abuse their parent deals with. Domestic violence has ability to cause post-traumatic stress disorder in children that are raised around it.

The trauma of domestic violence is enough to cause dangerous changes in the developing brains of children, including nightmares, changes in sleep patterns, anger, irritability, difficulty concentrating.

Routinely witnessing domestic violence places children at a high risk of developing depression, sadness, concentration issues into adulthood. In some instances, children that live in abusive households are also likely to fall victim to this treatment themselves.

Cómo afecta a los niños ser testigos de violencia doméstica.

Los niños en edad preescolar que son testigos de violencia doméstica pueden volver a los hábitos de los niños más pequeños: chuparse el dedo, mojar la cama, llorar más y lloriquear.

Los niños en edad escolar pueden desarrollar rasgos antisociales, luchar contra el sentido de culpa por el maltrato presenciado y asumir la culpa del maltrato que sufren sus padres. La violencia doméstica puede provocar estrés postraumático en los niños que se crían en su ambiente.

El trauma de la violencia doméstica es suficiente para causar cambios peligrosos en el cerebro en desarrollo de los niños, incluyendo pesadillas, cambios en los patrones de sueño, ira, irritabilidad, dificultad para concentrarse.

Ser testigos habituales de la violencia doméstica expone a los niños a un alto riesgo de desarrollar depresión, tristeza y problemas de concentración en la edad adulta. En algunos casos, los niños que viven en hogares con violencia doméstica también son propensos a ser víctimas ellos mismos. 9 AM - 1 PM

- Do you feel called by God to bring compassion and comfort to those who mourn?
- Do you have time and energy to volunteer and dedicate your support to someone experiencing a loss?

"The Church calls each member of Christ's body- priest, deacon, layperson to participate in the ministry of consolation: to care for the dying, to pray for the dead, and to comfort those who mourn." OCF #8

Catholic Cemeteries of the Archdiocese of Chicago are pleased to offer an in-depth training and enrichment in Bereavement Ministry. Learn to create, design and sustain a Ministry that's "just right" for your parish. Virtual formation is also available in English or Spanish.

Bereavement Ministry is just that: praying for the dead and comforting those who mourn, one of the Spiritual Works of Mercy.

Depending on the needs of the family, Bereavement Ministers under the guidance and supervision of their Pastor, and on behalf of the parish can:

- Pray for members of the parish community who have died and for their families.
- Meet, in-person or virtually, with the bereaved family to offer support and guidance as they plan the funeral liturgy.
- Visit the family and friends of the deceased at the wake to offer support and prayer on behalf of their parish community.
- Conduct the wake service if needed or requested by the family.
- Serve as a greeter, lector or Eucharistic Minister at the funeral liturgy if needed or requested by the family.
- Attend occasional prayer sessions and on-going formation to support his/her ministry.

Search within and listen to your heart. Are you being called?

Invest just five minutes a day, and your faith will deepen and grow—a day at a time

Sunday, October 15, 2023 Stretch your spirituality

Your doctor says that even a little exercise is important to keep the body flexible. Joints that move regularly are body parts that can function well a while longer. Walking 20 minutes a day or taking a water aerobics class are easy ways to lubricate the joints we need to perform our daily tasks. Saint Paul reminds us that flexibility is also a significant aspect of the spiritual life. Can we accept good times and bad, seasons of plenty or want, with the same light grip? Moving through circumstances fluidly makes for a freer life, and a gentler death.

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
TODAY'S READINGS: Isaiah 25:6-10a; Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20; Matthew 22:1-14 (142). "

Monday, October 16, 2023 A heart as wide as the world

Depicted as a flaming, shining, bleeding heart, pierced by a lance, encircled by a crown of thorns, and topped with a cross, the Sacred Heart of Jesus symbolizes Christ's boundless, suffering love for humanity. The devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the best known and most practiced of all Catholic devotions, but the 17th-century French Visitation nun who received the revelation of this devotion, Margaret Mary Alacoque, was doubted in her lifetime, and the practice wasn't officially recognized until 75 years after her death. Incorporate an aspiration, or short prayer, to the Sacred Heart each day to remind you that you are unconditionally loved. Examples are "Sacred Heart of Jesus, make my heart like yours," "Sacred Heart of Jesus, I believe in your love for me," or "Sacred Heart of Jesus, may you be known, loved, and imitated!"

Tuesday, October 17, 2023 Bread of Life, bread for the poor

Saint Ignatius Theophorus wrote seven epistles while trudging from Antioch to Rome. As Roman soldiers pushed him toward martyrdom in a coliseum, Ignatius decried a different enemy of Christian faith: docetism, whose Christian adherents claimed Jesus never existed physically on Earth—that he only appeared to. In denying the Incarnation, Ignatius says, such heretics also fail to see the Lord's presence in the Eucharist and in the poor. "They have no concern for love, none for the widow, none for the orphan, none for the oppressed, none for the prisoner or the one released, none for the hungry or thirsty." And "they abstain from Eucharist" because "they refuse to acknowledge the Eucharist." Ignatius, help us to see Jesus—in all the places he said he'd be.

Wednesday, October 18, 2023 Pack lightly for the journey of faith

Today we celebrate the feast of the evangelist Luke. Best known for his gospel, Luke was a dedicated disciple of Paul who goes so far as to join Paul in prison—twice. You can read

Luke's account of the early Christians in the Acts of the Apostles. But first, read what Luke says in today's gospel, which gives Jesus' directives to the disciples who are serving as his advance team. These directives are simple but not easy: "Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals"—and they remain amazingly relevant to living a simple life of faith. How can you enact them in your own life?

FEAST OF LUKE, EVANGELIST
TODAY'S READINGS: 2 Timothy 4:10-17b; Luke 10:1-9 (661).

Thursday, Oct 19, 2023 Reconciling our past

Today is the memorial of several men who were killed for evangelizing native people in Quebec. The documentation of these encounters is almost entirely from the perspective of European American Christians, with missionaries as heroic martyrs and natives as murderous heathens. The truth is much more complicated. Pope Francis' 2022 apology to indigenous people in Canada and the U.S. Catholic Indigenous Boarding School Accountability and Healing Project are two efforts to look at the bigger picture of Christian-Indigenous relationships with accountability and reconciliation as goals. Join these efforts by exploring Native American culture and history.

Friday, October 20, 2023 GPS for the Soul

In nd downs of everyday life. The practice involves a one-on-one relationship with a spiritual director who helps us to see how God is moving in our lives. A director listens and offers wisdom such as that of Paul of the Cross: "Let everything in creation draw you to God. Refresh your mind with some innocent recreation and needful rest, if it were only to saunter through the garden or the fields, listening to the sermon preached by the flowers, the trees, the meadows, the sun, the sky, and the whole universe." In honor of Saint Paul cultivate the art of listening wisely.

MEMORIAL OF PAUL OF THE CROSS, PRIEST TODAY'S
READINGS: Romans 4:1-8; Luke 12:1-7 (471).

Saturday, October 21, 2023 A higher law

A higher law All of us run afoul of the law at some point or another, even if it's as minor as a parking ticket. Laws, religious or secular, are there to set standards and impose order. They have their purpose, but if we hope to be released from all that afflicts us in this life, we'll need a different kind of law—the law of love, mercy, compassion, and forgiveness. As 20th-century monk and mystic Thomas Merton explains, "The first obligation of the Christian is to maintain their freedom from all empty forms of legalism" and "live by a higher law—the law of grace and love." Let faith lead you there.
