MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE

On Monday, November 13, we celebrate the feast of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, the first American citizen to be canonized, who had very strong connections with Chicago,

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini was born as Maria Francesca Cabrini on July 15, 1850 in Sant' Angelo Lodigiano, Lombardy, Italy. She was born two months premature and the youngest of thirteen children. Unfortunately, only three of her siblings survived past adolescence and Frances would live most of her life in a fragile and delicate state of health.

Frances was educated in the convent school of the Daughters of the Sacred Heart, where she seems to have discovered her vocation to religious life as a missionary sister. Although she graduated from the convent school with high honors and certification as a teacher, she was refused admission to the Daughters of the Sacred Heart because of her poor health. A priest obtained for Frances the position of headmistress of the House of Providence Orphanage in Codogno, Italy. There, Frances served for six years. At that time, she gathered together a community of women in to live the religious life.

In 1877, she became Mother Cabrini of the band of sisters she had formed. She professed her religious vows and began to wear the religious habit. She modified her name slightly for the religious life, adding Xavier to her name in honor of Saint Francis Xavier.

When the House of Providence Orphanage closed, the local bishop asked Mother Cabrini and her Sisters, to formally establish themselves as the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart to care for the poor children in both schools and hospitals. Mother Cabrini Frances composed the Rule and Constitution for the religious institute. The good work of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart drew the attention of Bishop Giovanni Scalabrini and later Pope Leo XIII.

In September 1887, Mother Cabrini requested the approval of Pope Leo to establish missions in China. But the Pope urged Mother Cabrini to go instead to the United States to help the Italian immigrants who were flooding to that nation, mostly in great poverty. "Not to the East, but to the West" was his directive.

Mother Cabrini, with six of her nuns, arrived in New York City on March 31, 1889. In New York, Mother Cabrini encountered disappointment and difficulties, not the least of which was the opposition of the Irish dominated clergy. Although the Irish Archbishop Michael Corrigan was not immediately supportive, he secured housing for the Italian Sisters with the Sisters of Charity. Soon, Mother Cabrini received the Archbishop's approval of her plans to establish the Sacred Heart Orphanage. Mother Cabrini and her Sisters organized

MENSAJE DEL PADRE MIKE

El lunes 13 de noviembre celebramos la fiesta de Santa Francisca Javier Cabrini, la primera ciudadana estadounidense en ser canonizada, que tenía conexiones muy fuertes con Chicago.

Santa Francisca Javier Cabrini nació como Maria Francesca Cabrini el 15 de julio de 1850 en Sant' Angelo Lodigiano, Lombardía, Italia. Nació dos meses prematura y fue la menor de trece hermanos. Desafortunadamente, solo tres de sus hermanos sobrevivieron más allá de la adolescencia y Frances viviría la mayor parte de su vida en un estado de salud frágil y delicado.

Francisca fue educada en el colegio conventual de las Hijas del Sagrado Corazón, donde parece haber descubierto su vocación a la vida religiosa como hermana misionera. Aunque se graduó de la escuela conventual con altos honores y certificación como maestra, se le negó la admisión a las Hijas del Sagrado Corazón debido a su mala salud. Un sacerdote consiguió para Frances el puesto de directora del orfanato House of Providence en Codogno, Italia. Allí, Frances sirvió durante seis años. En ese momento, reunió a una comunidad de mujeres para vivir la vida religiosa.

En 1877, se convirtió en Madre Cabrini del grupo de hermanas que había formado. Profesó sus votos religiosos y comenzó a vestir el hábito religioso. Modificó ligeramente su nombre para la vida religiosa, añadiendo Xavier a su nombre en honor a San Francisco Javier.

Cuando el Orfanato Casa de la Providencia cerró, el obispo local pidió a la Madre Cabrini y a sus Hermanas que se establecieran formalmente como Hermanas Misioneras del Sagrado Corazón para cuidar a los niños pobres tanto en las escuelas como en los hospitales. La Madre Cabrini Frances compuso la Regla y la Constitución del instituto religioso. El buen trabajo de las Hermanas Misioneras del Sagrado Corazón atrajo la atención del obispo Giovanni Scalabrini y más tarde del Papa León XIII.

En septiembre de 1887, la Madre Cabrini solicitó la aprobación del Papa León para establecer misiones en China. Pero el Papa instó a la Madre Cabrini a ir a los Estados Unidos para ayudar a los inmigrantes italianos que estaban llegando a esa nación, en su mayoría en gran pobreza. "No hacia el Este, sino hacia el Oeste" era su directriz.

La Madre Cabrini, con seis de sus monjas, llegó a la ciudad de Nueva York el 31 de marzo de 1889. En Nueva York, la Madre Cabrini se encontró con decepciones y dificultades, entre las que destaca la oposición del clero dominado por los irlandeses. Aunque el arzobispo irlandés Michael Corrigan no lo apoyó de inmediato, consiguió alojamiento para las Hermanas italianas con las Hermanas de la Caridad. Pronto, la Madre Cabrini pudo obtener la aprobación del Arzobispo de sus planes para establecer el Orfanato del Sagrado Corazón. La Madre Cabrini y sus Hermanas organizaron clases de catecismo catechism classes and other basic education classes for the Italian immigrants. This led to the establishment of schools and orphanages despite tremendous odds. She was as resourceful as she was prayerful, finding people who would donate what she needed in money, time, land and labor.

Mother Cabrini came to Chicago in 1899: Mother Cabrini traveled to Chicago, where she founded and taught at Assumption School in the River North neighborhood of Chicago. In February 1905: Mother Cabrini opened Columbus Hospital in the Lincoln Park neighborhood of Chicago. In February of 1910, Mother Cabrini established an extension of Columbus Hospital in the Little Italy neighborhood on the west side of Chicago. After Mother Cabrini's canonization, this institution would be named Saint Frances Cabrini Hospital.

In 1917, Mother Cabrini purchased 32-acre farm in what is now Park Ridge so patients at her hospitals could have fresh food.

Mother Cabrini established her order in Denver, Colorado, Philadelphia, Los Angeles, and in various places in Central and South America.

Mother Cabrini died on December 22, 1917 in her room in the convent attached to Columbus Hospital. Pope Pius XII canonized Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini in 1946.

en las clases de educación básica para los inmigrantes italianos. Esto llevó al establecimiento de escuelas y orfanatos a pesar de las tremendas probabilidades. Era tan ingeniosa como devota, encontrando personas que donaran lo que necesitaba en dinero, tiempo, tierra y trabajo.

La Madre Cabrini llegó a Chicago en 1899: la Madre Cabrini viajó a Chicago, donde fundó y enseñó en la Escuela de la Asunción en el barrio River North de Chicago. En febrero de 1905: La Madre Cabrini abrió el Hospital Columbus en el barrio de Lincoln Park de Chicago. En febrero de 1910, la Madre Cabrini estableció una extensión del Hospital Columbus en el vecindario de Little Italy en el lado oeste de Chicago. Después de la canonización de la Madre Cabrini, esta institución pasaría a llamarse Hospital Santa Francisca Cabrini.

En 1917, la Madre Cabrini compra una granja de 32 acres en lo que ahora es Park Ridge para que los pacientes de sus hospitales pudieran tener alimentos frescos.

La Madre Cabrini estableció su orden en Denver, Colorado, Filadelfia, Los Ángeles y en varios lugares de América Central y del Sur.

La Madre Cabrini murió el 22 de diciembre de 1917 en su habitación del convento anexo al Hospital Colón. El Papa Pío XII canonizó a Santa Francisca Javier Cabrini en 1946.

NATIONAL WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA DAY

The Knights of Columbus Immaculate Conception Assembly #3473 is coordinating ceremonial events at Saint Joseph Cemetery, 3100 Thatcher Ave. in River Grove, IL and at Union Ridge Cemetery, 6700 W. Higgins Ave.

On December 16, 2023 at 12:00 pm (Wreath Placement Immediately Following Ceremony), Wreaths Across America will Remember and Honor our veterans through the laying of Remembrance wreaths on the graves of our country's fallen heroes. You are invited to join us to honor our veterans at their eternal resting place.

Who We Remember.

From the Revolutionary War to present day conflicts, our veterans are devoted sons and daughters, fathers and mothers, sisters and brothers. They come from all backgrounds in life to place those lives on the line for our freedoms. There are millions of individual stories to tell. Get to know them by viewing the 4,760 recent posts made by our supporters or sponsor a wreath in honor of or in memory of an American hero.

Why We Do It.

We understand we have Veterans Day in the fall and Memorial Day in the spring, but our service members sacrifice their time and safety every single day of the year to preserve our freedoms. In many homes, there is an empty seat for one who is serving or one who made the ultimate sacrifice for our country. There is no better why to express our appreciation than during the hustle and bustle of the holiday season. We hope you will join us at any of our more than 3,400 participating locations to show our veterans and their families that we will not forget. We will never forget.

Please help us recognize these veterans of various eras, by sponsoring a wreath for placement on the grave of one of these veterans at Saint Joseph or Union Ridge or both.

Orders can be placed on the Wreaths Across America website: <https://wreathsassamerica.org/pages/pages/154643/Overview/?relatedId=0>

Children's Liturgy
of the Word

To all Parishioners of Saint Pascal Church,

It has been an honor and a pleasure to serve as the leaders of Children's Liturgy of the Word for the past 25 plus years. The time spent teaching and leading your children during weekly Mass has truly been a joy for us. With that in mind, it is with a heavy heart that we announce our joint retirement from this ministry. Our last Children's Liturgy service will be Sunday, December 17 AM. We cherish the time we have spent with your children and appreciate the trust you have placed in us to guide them on their faith journey.

It is our hope that others in the parish will be inspired to continue this important and rewarding ministry. We strongly encourage anyone who feels a calling for working with the children and wishes to continue this "Little Ministry" to call the Saint Pascal Parish Office.

With warmest regards and blessings,

Theresa Nagaro and Susan Friehl

PLANNED GIVING

Don't forget to do this by December 1st.

If you have an individual retirement account and you are age 73 or older, you probably know that you must take your required minimum distribution (RMD) before the year ends. However, did you know that you can fulfill all or part of your RMD and reduce your taxable income by transferring funds directly from your IRA to your parish or the Archdiocese of Chicago?

Don't wait until it's too late to benefit from reduced taxes. Learn more at archchicago.org/qcd.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to Our Lady of the Rosary Parish, please contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org.

Gracias por su generosidad y apoyo. ¡Sus contribuciones son muy apreciadas!

DONACIONES PLANIFICADAS

No olvide hacer esto antes del 1 de diciembre.

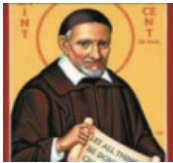

Si tiene una cuenta de retiro individual y tiene 73 años o más, probablemente sabe que debe tomar su distribución mínima obligatoria (RMD, por sus siglas en inglés) antes de que termine el año. Sin embargo, ¿sabía que puede cumplir con todo o parte de su RMD y reducir su ingreso sujeto a impuestos al transferir fondos directamente de su IRA a su parroquia o la Arquidiócesis de Chicago?

No espere hasta que sea demasiado tarde para beneficiarse de impuestos reducidos. Conozca más en archchicago.org/qcd.

Si le gustaría recibir más información sobre cómo hacer una donación de QCD a Our Lady of the Rosary, por favor comuníquese con Krystina M. Campbell, encargada de Donaciones Planificadas, Arquidiócesis de Chicago, al 312.534.5404 o kcampbell@archchicago.org.

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually.

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

During the first weekend of each month, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society collects non-perishable food for its pantry. Items may be placed in the blue barrel inside the Saint Pascal Church building at the Dakin Street exit during that time, or any time that the church is open.

Trigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario:

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos desafía a "permanecer despiertos" tomándonos el tiempo para mirarnos seriamente a nosotros mismos, las prioridades de nuestras vidas y cómo estamos creciendo espiritualmente.

Pregúntese "¿Qué haría Jesucristo?" y luego ponga su regalo en la caja de pobres de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl para que los que están sufriendo puedan celebrar el Día de Acción de Gracias.

Durante el primer fin de semana de cada mes, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl recolecta alimentos no perecederos para su despensa. Los artículos se pueden colocar en el barril azul dentro del edificio de la Iglesia de San Pascal en la salida de la calle Dakin durante ese tiempo, o en cualquier momento que la iglesia esté abierta.

Acompañenos a rezar el Santo Rosario todos los Domingos en la Iglesia San.Pascual a las 5:00 PM.

Please join us to pray the rosary after the 8:30 AM morning Mass Monday through Saturday at Saint Pascal Church.

Last things

November's a good time to consider our responsibilities to those who depend on us and may be nearing the end of life. (Or perhaps we're getting long in years ourselves.) We know our social obligations: Write a will, make our medical preferences known to doctors and family members. But Catholics have other duties too. Offering forgiveness and being forgiven are vital issues at the end of life—and every year of life. We have to ensure the sacraments are available to the elderly and the sick. How vigils, funerals, and burials are conducted matters to us. Reflect on these things now.

The underestimated shall be esteemed

Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini was born Maria Francesca in Italy in 1850, the youngest of 13 children. She was small and had poor health. Because of her frailty, she was rejected by the religious community she wanted to join. She founded her own order and dreamed of becoming a missionary to the Far East like the saint whose name she took. But the pope sent her west instead, to the United States—and she founded 67 missionary institutions to serve the sick and poor from New York to Chicago to Los Angeles. Nine years after her death, her religious institute, the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, became missionaries in China. Don't underestimate the power of God or yourself!

Put your hope in order

As we inch toward Advent, it's good to revisit the theme of hope. Consider this, from Pope Francis two years ago today, for the World Day of the Poor: "The hope born of the Gospel has nothing to do with a passive expectation that things may be better tomorrow, but with making God's promise of salvation concrete today.... Christian hope is not the naïve, even adolescent, optimism of those who hope that things may change [and] in the meantime go on with life; it has to do with building daily, by concrete gestures, the kingdom of love, justice, and fraternity that Jesus inaugurated." Or as Italian Bishop Don Tonio Bello would say, "We cannot be content to hope. We have to organize hope." How will you organize hope today?

Live a life of great service

The great Dominican friar Albertus Magnus died on this day in 1280, after a long life of dedication to the church as a scholar, scientist, and briefly the bishop of Regensburg. He shunned excess and was known as a mediator—which, in his day, was a complicated matter, given the ongoing Crusades. We, too, live in an age of war, economic inequality, and general spiritual laxity. We owe it to ourselves to look to the German Dominican for inspiration to live a more rigorous life of spiritual seeking, so as to find lasting solutions to the problems of our day.

Extraordinary sacrifice in ordinary clothing

It's easy to think that martyrs were people completely different from us, but Christian courage doesn't always have a cinematic face. Father Ignacio Ellacuría, S.J., five other Jesuits, and their housekeeper and her daughter were murdered in El Salvador. Ellacuría and his fellow Jesuits had publicly defended human rights and ministered to poor people in spite of intense government repression. May their dedication to justice inspire us to do our part in creating a more just world order that protects those who speak truth to power.

A delicate matter

The Catholic Church identifies well over a dozen saints as patrons of lacemaking, lace workers, and related textile workers. Saint Elizabeth of Hungary is among these patrons who possibly became associated with lacemaking as it is a craft often seen as "immaculate" and virtuous, much like the saints themselves. But lacemakers and other artisan workers also often sat on the edge of poverty. These were the people who benefitted from the kind deeds of the likes of Saint Elizabeth, who roamed the streets near her castle passing out alms for the poor and tending to the sick. Take a moment to consider the artisans and craftspeople of our own time who could benefit from your patronage.

A veteran worthy of his day.

In 1818, when Saint Rose Philippine Duchesne came from France to the United States, she was dismayed that slavery still operated "in the land of the free." Yet, when she opened foundations in Louisiana, the sisters were given slaves along with their households. In 1830 she accepted a slave in lieu of a tuition payment. She insisted that slaves in the household be treated well, arguing, "They have the same soul as we; they have been redeemed by the same blood and received into the same Church," but, like all of us, she was clearly enmeshed in social structures in need of redemption. Work for a society that truly is free at last.
