A WORD FROM FATHER MIKE

Dear Parishioners,

Our Lenten journey with the Lord to Holy Week takes a slight detour this week with the celebration of two feast days that seem more in tune with the Season of Advent and Christmas: The Solemnity of Saint Joseph (ordinarily, March 19) and the Solemnity of the Annunciation (March 25). This year, because we celebrate the Fourth Sunday of Lent on March 19, the Solemnity of Saint Joseph has been moved to Monday, March 20. The Solemnity of the Annunciation, March 25, falls on a Saturday. The morning Mass on that day will be that of the Solemnity. The evening Mass, however, will be that of the Fifth Sunday of Lent. Our detour into a quick jaunt into Advent and Christmas is not so great. But those for whom the liturgical year is a special form of devotion may find it to be a bit confusing, to say the least.

The Solemnity of Saint Joseph is the Church's principal celebration of Saint Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary and foster father of Jesus Christ. Not only Catholics, but Anglicans, Episcopalians, and Lutherans celebrate Saint Joseph on March 19. The Eastern Orthodox Churches honor Saint Joseph on the Sunday after Christmas. In some countries, the Solemnity of Saint Joseph is observed as a Holy Day of Obligation. In Italy, Spain, and Portugal, Father's Day is observed on the Solemnity of Saint Joseph.

March 19 was dedicated to Saint Joseph in several Western calendars by the 10th century, and this custom was established in Rome by 1479. Pope Saint Pius V extended the celebration to the entire Latin rite in 1570. The liturgical reforms initiated by Vatican II revised the status of the celebration, allowing national conferences of bishops to transfer the feast to a date outside of Lent. The reform of the liturgy, even if Saint Joseph's Day is celebrated within Lent on the usual date of 19 March, it is still observed as a Solemnity of a Saint. Thus, the Solemnity of Saint Joseph is one of the few times during Lent the Gloria is required to be said or sung. The vesture is changed from the purple or violet of Lent to white or gold. The orations (prayers) are taken from the Solemnity and not Lent, the hymns are more joyful, and the Creed is said. Still, the Alleluia is not sung, per Lenten regulations.

Between 1870 and 1955, an additional feast was celebrated in honor of Saint Joseph as Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Patron Saint of the Universal Church, the latter title having been given to him by Pope Pius IX. Originally celebrated on the third Sunday after Easter with an octave. Pope Saint Pius X moved this latter celebration of Saint Joseph to the preceding Wednesday (because Wednesday was the day of the week specifically dedicated to Saint Joseph, Saint John the Baptist and local patrons). The feast was also retitled The Solemnity of Saint Joseph. This celebration and its accompanying octave were abolished during the modernization and simplification of rubrics under Pope Pius XII in 1955.

At the same time, Pope Pius XII established an additional Feast of "Saint Joseph the Worker", to be celebrated on May 1, to counteract the Communist celebrations of May Day. In 1969, the Feast of Saint Joseph the Worker, which at one time occupied the highest possible rank in the Church calendar, was reduced to an optional Memorial, the lowest rank for a saint's day.

The Solemnity of the Annunciation, March 25, commemorates the apparition of the Archangel Gabriel to Our Lady and God's invitation for her to serve as the mother of Jesus Christ. The Feast of the Annunciation was celebrated as early as the fourth or fifth century. The first certain mentions of the feast are in a decision of the Council of Toledo in 656, where it was described as celebrated throughout the Church. As this feast celebrates the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity, many Church Fathers, including Saint Athanasius, Saint Gregory of Nyssa, and Saint Augustine have commented on it.

Because the Solemnity of the Annunciation honors the Incarnation, its observance mirrors that of Christmas. At Mass on both holy days, the liturgy calls us to genuflect during the recitation of the Creed at the words "and was made man."

A WORD FROM FATHER MIKE

Estimados feligreses,

Nuestro viaje cuaresmal con el Señor a la Semana Santa toma un ligero desvío esta semana con la celebración de dos días festivos que parecen más en sintonía con el tiempo de Adviento y Navidad: la solemnidad de San José (ordinariamente, 19 de marzo) y la solemnidad de la Anunciación (25 de marzo). Este año, debido a que celebramos el cuarto domingo de Cuaresma el 19 de marzo, la solemnidad de San José se ha trasladado al lunes 20 de marzo. La solemnidad de la Anunciación, el 25 de marzo, cae en sábado. La Misa de la mañana de ese día será la de la Solemnidad. La misa vespertina, sin embargo, será la del quinto domingo de Cuaresma. Nuestro desvío en una excursión rápida hacia el Adviento y la Navidad no es tan grande. Pero aquellos para quienes el año litúrgico es una forma especial de devoción pueden encontrarlo un poco confuso, por decir lo menos.

La solemnidad de San José es la celebración principal de la Iglesia de San José, esposo de la Santísima Virgen María y padre adoptivo del padre adoptivo de Jesucristo. No solo los católicos, sino también los anglicanos, episcopales y luteranos celebran a San José el 19 de marzo. Las iglesias ortodoxas orientales honran a San José el domingo después de Navidad. En algunos países, la solemnidad de San José se observa como un Día Santo de Obligación. En Italia, España y Portugal, el Día del Padre se observa en la solemnidad de San José.

El 19 de marzo fue dedicado a San José en varios calendarios occidentales en el siglo 10, y esta costumbre se estableció en Roma en 1479. El Papa San Pío V extendió la celebración a todo el rito latino en 1570. Las reformas litúrgicas iniciadas por el Vaticano II revisaron el estado de la celebración, permitiendo a las conferencias nacionales de obispos transferir la fiesta a una fecha fuera de la Cuaresma. La reforma de la liturgia, incluso si el día de San José se celebra dentro de la Cuaresma en la fecha habitual del 19 de marzo, todavía se observa como una solemnidad de un santo. Por lo tanto, la solemnidad de San José es una de las pocas veces durante la Cuaresma que se requiere que se diga o cante el Gloria. La vestimenta se cambia del púrpura o violeta de la Cuaresma a blanco u oro. Las oraciones (oraciones) se toman de la solemnidad y no de la Cuaresma, los himnos son más alegres y se dice el Credo. Aún así, el Aleluya no se canta, según las regulaciones de Cuaresma.

Entre 1870 y 1955, se celebró una fiesta adicional en honor de San José como Esposo de la Santísima Virgen María y Santo Patrón de la Iglesia Universal, este último título le fue dado por el Papa Pío IX. Originalmente se celebraba el tercer domingo después de Pascua con una octava. El Papa San Pío X trasladó esta última celebración de San José al miércoles anterior (porque el miércoles era el día de la semana dedicado específicamente a San José, San Juan Bautista y los patronos locales). La fiesta también fue retitulada La solemnidad de San José. Esta celebración y su octava acompañante fueron abolidas durante la modernización y simplificación de las rúbricas bajo el Papa Pío XII en 1955.

Al mismo tiempo, el Papa Pío XII estableció una fiesta adicional de "San José Obrero", que se celebraría el 1 de mayo, para contrarrestar las celebraciones comunistas del Primero de Mayo. En 1969, la fiesta de San José Obrero, que en un momento ocupó el rango más alto posible en el calendario de la Iglesia, se redujo a un Memorial opcional, el rango más bajo para el día de un santo.

La solemnidad de la Anunciación, el 25 de marzo, conmemora la aparición del Arcángel Gabriel a Nuestra Señora y la invitación de Dios para que sirva como madre de Jesucristo. La Fiesta de la Anunciación se celebraba ya en el siglo IV o V. Las primeras menciones ciertas de la fiesta se encuentran en una decisión del Concilio de Toledo en 656, donde se describió como celebrada en toda la Iglesia. Como esta fiesta celebra la Encarnación de la Segunda Persona de la Santísima Trinidad, muchos Padres de la Iglesia, incluidos San Atanasio, San Gregorio de Nisa y San Agustín lo han comentado.

Debido a que la solemnidad de la Anunciación honra la Encarnación, su observancia refleja la de la Navidad. En la Misa en ambos días santos, la liturgia nos llama a hacer una genuflexión durante la recitación del Credo con las palabras "y se hizo hombre".

BY THIS HOLY CROSS- WE WILL PRAY FOR YOU!

Most of us have something that we would like God to help us with. Some prayer intentions are public, and some are in the heart and our very private. Sickness, Unemployment, a troubled marriage, a child that may be getting involved with drugs, an addiction, physical and mental abuse, are just a few, but there are many others.

This Lent, The Knights of Columbus - Mater Christi Council, which is affiliated with Saint Ladislaus Parish, Saint Ferdinand Parish, Saint Pascal Parish, and Saint Priscilla Parish will continue with a prayer program we started last year for the four parishes in our group called "By This Holy Cross."

We will pray for you and your prayer intention to be answered if it is the Will of God.

For one weekend during Lent, a large wood cross will be set up in the vestibule of your church so people can write their prayer intention on a small piece of paper and lay it on the cross with the writing facing the cross. It will then be stapled to the cross by a member of the Knights of Columbus as he speaks out loud, Pray for Us. The sound of the staple gun going through and into the wood will remind us of what Jesus went through on Good Friday... the pain our Jesus suffered and the agony His Mother felt.

On Holy Thursday, this cross with all the petitions from people from all four churches will be carried on the bus as part of the Knights of Columbus Holy Thursday bus pilgrimage to pray at seven churches. We hope you will consider riding the bus to the seven churches with us. It is a very public, outward show of our love of Jesus at this time, the time he was held prisoner before being condemned to death on the cross on Good Friday.

Last year, we carried the heavy cross into each of the churches. This year because the wood cross is too heavy and large and is hard to get on and off the bus, we will carry a 3 foot by 2 foot laminated picture of the cross with your 2023 petitions on it. The cross picture with the names of each church in each corner will be carried into every church where the Blessed Sacrament will be in repose, and for seven times, in front of Our Lord, we will pray for all intentions on the cross. We ask you who cannot make the bus pilgrimage to pray for everyone's prayer petitions this Holy Thursday night.

The weekend the cross will be here at Saint Pascal is March 25-26. If you would like, you are welcome to fill out a prayer intention note in the vestibule of the church either before or after Mass so it can be stapled to the cross and for all of us to pray for. (We will not staple during Mass so as to not be distracting.)

POR ESTA SANTA CRUZ, ¡ORAREMOS POR TI!

La mayoría de nosotros tenemos algo con lo que nos gustaría que Dios nos ayudara. Algunas intenciones de oración son públicas, y otras están en el corazón y en nuestra propia privacidad. La enfermedad, el desempleo, un matrimonio problemático, un niño que puede estar involucrado con las drogas, una adicción, el abuso físico y mental, son solo algunos, pero hay muchos otros.

Esta Cuaresma, el Consejo Mater Christi de Caballeros de Colón, que está afiliado a la Parroquia de San Ladislao, la Parroquia de San Fernando, la Parroquia de San Pascal y la Parroquia de Santa Priscila, continuará con un programa de oración que comenzamos el año pasado para las cuatro parroquias de nuestro grupo llamado Por esta Santa Cruz.

Oraremos por usted y su intención de oración para ser contestada si es la Voluntad de Dios.

Durante un fin de semana durante Len, se colocará una gran cruz de madera en el vestíbulo de su iglesia para que las personas puedan escribir su intención de oración en un pequeño pedazo de papel y colocarlo en la cruz con la escritura frente a la cruz. Luego será grapado a la cruz por un miembro de Caballeros de Colón mientras habla en voz alta: Oren por nosotros. El sonido de la pistola de grapas atravesando y entrando en la madera nos recordará lo que Jesús pasó el Viernes Santo... el dolor que sufrió Nuestro Jesús y la agonía que sintió su Madre.

El Jueves Santo, esta cruz con todas las peticiones de personas de las cuatro iglesias será llevada en el autobús como parte de la peregrinación en autobús del Jueves Santo de Caballeros de Colón para orar en siete iglesias. Esperamos que considere viajar en autobús a las siete iglesias con nosotros. Es una muestra muy pública y externa de nuestro amor por Jesús en este momento, el momento en que estuvo prisionero antes de ser condenado a muerte en la cruz el Viernes Santo.

El año pasado, llevamos la pesada cruz a cada una de las iglesias. Este año, debido a que la cruz de madera es demasiado pesada y grande y es difícil subir y bajar del autobús, llevaremos una imagen laminada de 3 pies por 2 pies de la cruz con sus peticiones de 2023. La imagen de la cruz con los nombres de cada iglesia en cada esquina será llevada a cada iglesia donde el Santísimo Sacramento estará en reposo, y por siete veces, frente a Nuestro Señor, oraremos por todas las intenciones en la cruz. Les pedimos a ustedes que no pueden hacer la peregrinación en autobús que recen por las peticiones de oración de todos esta noche de Jueves Santo.

El fin de semana que la cruz estará aquí en Saint Pascal es el 25 y 26 de marzo. Si lo desea, puede completar una nota de intención de oración en el vestíbulo de la iglesia, ya sea antes o después de la misa, para que pueda ser grapada a la cruz y para que todos oremos por ella. (No graparemos durante la misa para no distraer).

PLANNED GIVING

"I am the LORD; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations." (Isaiah 42:6)

If your family's needs are being met, please be a light to others by considering a gift through your individual retirement account (IRA) in support of our parish. By naming Our Lady of the Rosary as a beneficiary, you'll provide crucial financial support to our parish and the entire value of your gift will be transferred to us free from federal estate and income tax. It costs nothing to change the beneficiary on your retirement plan and will mean everything to our future parish community.

Please contact your IRA administrator for more information, or contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312-534-5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org.
