MESSAGE FROM FATHER MIKE

Dear Parishioners,
 Mass Schedule for Saturday, June 3
 On Saturday, June 3, 2023, Our Lady of the Rosary Parish will observe several important events that will require of us both creativity and patience.

Both of our Grammar Schools will celebrate their Graduation Ceremonies on Saturday, June 3.

Saint Bartholomew will hold its Graduation at 10:00 AM at Saint. Bartholomew Church

Pope Francis Global Academy will hold its Graduation at 2:00 PM in Saint Pascal Church

Because of the importance of these events, we have adjusted the regular Liturgical Schedule of Masses held on Saturday, June 3.

On June 3, 2023, the 8:30 AM Saturday Morning Mass and Confessions will only be held at SAINT PASCAL Church. There will be no Saturday Morning Mass or Confessions on June 3, 2023 at Saint. Bartholomew Church. This will allow us to give proper attention to the preparation for the 10:00 AM Graduation Ceremony for the Saint Bartholomew Class of 2023

ALSO, on Saturday, June 3, 2023, the Saturday Evening Mass (Anticipated Mass of Sunday) will only be held at 4:30 PM at SAINT BARTHOLOMEW Church. There will be no 4:00 PM Mass at Saint Pascal. This will allow us to properly celebrate the Graduation of the Pope Francis Global Academy Class of 2023 at 2:00 PM.

A Shuttle Bus will be provided to transport to Saint Bartholomew those who ordinarily walk to Saint Pascal for the Saturday Evening Mass. Please see the parish website to register for a seat on the Shuttle Bus.

We appreciate your kind understanding and apologize for any inconvenience.

MENSAJE DEL PADRE MIKE

Queridos feligreses,

Horario de misas para el sábado 3 de junio

El sábado 3 de junio de 2023, la Parroquia de Nuestra Señora del Rosario observará varios eventos importantes que requerirán de nosotros creatividad y paciencia.

Nuestras dos escuelas primarias celebrarán sus ceremonias de graduación el sábado 3 de junio.

San Bartolomé celebrará su graduación a las 10:00 AM en la Iglesia de San Bartolomé

La Academia Global del Papa Francisco celebrará su graduación a las 2:00 PM en la Iglesia de San Paso

Debido a la importancia de estos eventos, hemos ajustado el horario litúrgico regular de las Misas que se celebran el sábado 3 de junio.

El 3 de junio de 2023, la Misa y Confesiones del sábado por la mañana a las 8:30 solo se llevará a cabo en la Iglesia ST. PASCAL. No habrá misa del sábado por la mañana ni confesiones el 3 de junio de 2023 en la Iglesia de San Bartolomé. Esto nos permitirá prestar la atención adecuada a la preparación para la Ceremonia de Graduación de las 10:00 AM para la Clase de San Bartolomé de 2023.

ADEMÁS, el sábado 3 de junio de 2023, la Misa del sábado por la noche (Misa anticipada del domingo) solo se llevará a cabo a las 4:30 PM en la Iglesia de San Bartolomé. No habrá misa a las 4:00 PM en St. Pascal. Esto nos permitirá celebrar adecuadamente la Graduación de la Clase 2023 de la Academia Global del Papa Francisco a las 2:00 PM.

Se proporcionará un autobús de enlace para transportar a San Bartolomé a aquellos que normalmente caminan a San Pascal para la misa del sábado por la noche. Por favor, siga las instrucciones para registrarse para un asiento en el autobús de enlace.

Agradecemos su amable comprensión y nos disculpamos por cualquier inconveniente.

STATEMENT OF CARDINAL BLASE J. CUPICH, ARCHBISHOP OF CHICAGO, IN RESPONSE TO THE ILLINOIS ATTORNEY GENERAL REPORT MAY 23, 2023

Dear Friends in Christ,

From my earliest days as a bishop, I have dealt with allegations of child sexual abuse by putting the child at the center of my actions. In my experience, whether the abuse happened in the recent or distant past, the survivor speaks from the pain they suffered as that wounded and betrayed child. The Archdiocese of Chicago has long sought to heal them and prevent this crime from occurring again. I am personally committed to applying the highest level of vigilance to these efforts and to further strengthening our safeguards against abuse.

Today, Illinois Attorney General Kwame Raoul published a report (the Report) on his office's investigation of allegations of child sexual abuse against clergy in the six Illinois Catholic dioceses over a period of nearly 90 years. The Report addresses both how dioceses responded to such allegations in decades past and current policies that help ensure the safety of children and support the healing of survivors. We have not studied the report in detail but have serious concerns about data that might be misunderstood or are presented in ways that could be misleading. It is therefore important that we state what we know to be true. For example:

The Attorney General referenced 600 calls to his clergy hotline. To date not one has been referred to us for action – whether victim assistance, investigation or compensation. If any of the 600 calls contained an allegation it is important that it be made public.

The Attorney General claims to “disclose” 451 names of individuals with substantiated allegations. As to these names:

- 451 is all 6 dioceses and includes religious order priests and brothers.
- 451 includes the priests already on the 6 websites of these dioceses.
- All who pertain to and were known by the Archdiocese, were reported to civil authorities and "none were undisclosed, none were 'hiding in plain sight' since at least 2002." In addition, in 2002, the Archdiocese did a look back, disclosing to the States Attorney all previous allegations found in its files.
- We do list religious found by their orders to be substantiated.
- 149 still “undisclosed” men are mostly religious order members who are not on our site; they are not undisclosed, and they are under the supervision and report to their respective order. Attorney General Raoul distinguished between dioceses and religious orders, saying “this was an investigation of the dioceses, not the orders,” recognizing they are different. However their totals include both.
- Attorney General Raoul said the Church is more worthy of investigation because it is a trusted religious organization. We think all children deserve to be protected regardless of whether they are cared for by a religious or secular institution; it isn't fair or wise to focus only on the Catholic Church, which has made the greatest strides in this area.
- Statute of limitations: we offer care, compassion (pastoral outreach) and even compensation to all who come forward, regardless of the statute of limitations.
- Attorney General Raoul recommends outsiders being involved in overseeing our internal church investigations. We have had an independent review board with lay people overseeing these investigations since 1992, which is why the number of abuse incidents has dropped so dramatically.

We must think first of the survivors of sexual abuse who carry the burden of these crimes through their lives. On behalf of the archdiocese, I apologize to all who have been harmed by the failure to prevent and properly respond to child sexual abuse by clerics. Survivors will forever be in our prayers, and we have devoted ourselves to rooting out this problem and providing healing to victims.

For more than 30 years, the Archdiocese of Chicago has been at the forefront of developing and improving policies and programs to address the scourge of child sexual abuse and to support survivors. Our policies and procedures, first adopted in 1992, have served as a model for organizations and professionals dealing with this difficult issue. I hope the attention drawn to the issue by the Report will encourage those who work with minors to learn from our experience and take steps to protect all children from sexual abuse.

Here are some key facts about our efforts in the Archdiocese of Chicago:

- Since 1992, we have maintained one of the first and largest victim-survivor assistance programs in the nation. We provide assistance to anyone making an allegation, regardless of whether the accused is living or whether the allegation is substantiated.

STATEMENT OF CARDINAL BLASE J. CUPICH, ARCHBISHOP OF CHICAGO, IN RESPONSE TO THE ILLINOIS ATTORNEY GENERAL REPORT MAY 23, 2023

- No cleric with even one substantiated allegation against him is in ministry in the Archdiocese of Chicago. When we learn of an allegation of abuse, we act promptly, report it to civil authorities, remove the accused from ministry and investigate the allegation. Allegations are submitted to our lay-majority Independent Review Board for investigation. In accordance with the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) Charter for the Protection of Children and Youth, clerics found to have committed even one act of child sexual abuse are permanently removed from ministry.
- The archdiocese has, to our knowledge, reported all allegations of child sexual abuse by clergy to civil authorities, including the oldest allegations. We report these allegations regardless of whether the accused is alive or dead, a diocesan priest, an extern priest from another diocese or a religious order priest. We consider an allegation to have been made even if the report is made anonymously, has incomplete facts (such as the name of the priest or parish) or is made by a third party, and we report all such allegations to civil authorities. It is important to emphasize that, to our knowledge, there are no “hidden,” “undisclosed” or “unreported” allegations of child sexual abuse by the clergy of this archdiocese.
- Under our recently amended policies, allegations against deceased priests who have not yet been placed on our website list are processed by our Independent Review Board. If an allegation against a deceased priest is substantiated, the priest’s name is added to the list.
- When an allegation of child sexual abuse involves a religious order priest working in a ministry of the archdiocese, such as a parish assignment, we remove the accused’s faculties to minister in the archdiocese, contact the religious order and help facilitate the survivor’s report. Every religious order with members living in the archdiocese is mandated to have a process for investigating such allegations.
- Since 2006, we have published the names of diocesan priests with substantiated allegations of abuse on our website. In 2014, we published more than 20,000 documents from these priests’ files. These documents remain on our website.
- We update our website list as needed and have expanded it to include the names of religious order priests whose order has substantiated an accusation against them and who have been assigned to a ministry of the Archdiocese of Chicago such as a parish.
- We conduct background screenings for archdiocesan clergy, employees and volunteers and implement a comprehensive safe-environment training program for adults and children. Over the last two years, we trained more than 112,000 children in an age-appropriate manner on how to recognize, resist and report abusive behavior. To date, we have trained more than 263,000 adults in 3,700 training sessions.
- As is required by the USCCB Charter for the Protection of Children and Youth, (the Charter) we audit our parish and school safe environment programs every year and, in turn, the archdiocese’s compliance with the Charter is audited by the USCCB.
- Additionally, we have worked in collaboration with survivors to respond to their need for healing. This partnership has led to the development of the Healing Garden, an annual Mass for Hope and Healing and Pinwheel Service for Child Abuse Prevention, survivor-led peace circles, and the Healing Voices magazine.
- We always seek to improve our child protection and victim support efforts. We have repeatedly had our processes, policies and files reviewed by independent experts to help ensure we remain current with best practices.

In addition to these steps, the Archdiocese of Chicago fully cooperates with law enforcement, including with the Attorney General’s investigation. We have made our employees available for interviews and provided access to hundreds of thousands of documents. We are committed to continuously reviewing our policies and will carefully consider any changes recommended by the Attorney General. Indeed, the archdiocese has already implemented a number of recommendations the Attorney General made during the course of the investigation such as expansion of the parameters of our website list. More resources are available on the archdiocese’s attorney general report response website.

I invite other institutions that care for children and civil authorities to join us in this work and consider adopting the procedures we have developed over the past three decades, so that all children are kept safe.

Let us continue to pray for all those harmed by abuse. Let us reflect the light of Christ for them and be messengers of His Good News to all we encounter.

I will continue to pray for you and your families as I remain sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

STATEMENT OF CARDINAL CUPICH ON THE U.S. SUPREME COURT REFUSING TO BLOCK ASSAULT WEAPONS BAN IN ILLINOIS

I welcome the news that the U.S. Supreme Court has refused to temporarily halt Illinois' assault weapons ban, which will remain in force as appellate courts consider challenges. State lawmakers passed this important law in response to the horrific mass shooting during last year's Highland Park Independence Day parade — carnage made possible by the nature of the weapon. As of May 17, the United States has already suffered 226 mass shootings, according to the Gun Violence Archive. Last year saw more school shootings than any other since 1999.

In its statement on the Highland Park massacre, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops did not mince words: "We support a total ban on assault weapons and limitations on civilian access to high-capacity weapons and ammunition magazines." I could not agree more. We have a gun violence epidemic in America, and it is far past time for us to do something about it. Gun safety laws like the assault weapons ban signed by Gov. JB Pritzker are one essential component in our fight against gun violence.

In order to uproot our culture of violence, in which so many seem to prioritize the right to bear arms over the right to life, we must learn to see one another in a deeper way. Not as avatars of this or that ideology. Not as competitors in a kind of team sport looking to put points on the board. But rather, as members of the same human family who deserve respect. For religious believers, we trace that conviction to our belief that God created all of us in his image. It is my fervent prayer that as the United States continues to be brutalized by this wave of gun violence, we as a people may come to see one another with the eyes of God, with love.

OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY WOMEN'S CLUB

Our last meeting date was a Spring Dinner on May 9. It was so much fun to have so many of our members attend. There were gift bags to buy tickets for and we also had a 50/50 raffle. Someone at each table was lucky enough to take home a beautiful mum plant. The food was delicious, and there was plenty of it so that the ladies were able to take home a container of food. The food was catered by Porretta's Pizzeria.

The Women's Club will not meet again until September 12, 2023. Mark your calendars. SEE YOU IN THE FALL!

Congratulations Marge Kummerer - Our Lady of the Rosary Women's Club Woman of the Year!

Marge, as she is known by all in our Saint Pascal community, has been married to her husband, Gene, for sixty-five years. Together they raised five children, four boys and one girl. She has been blessed with eleven grandchildren, ten girls and one boy. Marge has been a parishioner of Saint Pascal for roughly sixty-one years. Her children attended Saint Pascal School. Throughout her life, she has led by example. She was involved in Cub Scout Pack 3815 as a den mother and participated in many school activities throughout her children's education.

Marge is not afraid to get involved in parish activities. Her name should be 'Martha', as you will often see her on Saturday mornings in church with her bucket and broom making sure our Lord's house is clean and welcoming. She has been a 'Martha' for 15 years.

Marge is an active member in the Women's Club. In addition to supporting the service project, retreat, and scholarship fundraiser, she also found time to take an active role with hospitality monthly meetings.

It is safe to say that Marge has a passion for ministry to the poor. She is an active member of the Saint Vincent de Paul Society. Whether she is collecting food items to stock the pantry, loading the trailer for Bundle Days, or answering a client's phone call for specific needs, Marge is available.

She currently is a caregiver for her husband, but has been known to visit, shop, and clean for parishioners who need help.

Marge's faith and service to others has been passed on to her family. Many of the members of her family minister by giving care to the sick or by helping the homeless on the streets. Her son, Gene, was called to the diaconate and was ordained in 2019. Gene followed his mother's example and worked tirelessly with the Saint Vincent de Paul Society in caring for those in need. He was the moderator of the Women's Club and fulfilled his calling daily by attending to the spiritual needs of our parish. In February, Deacon Gene was suddenly called home by our Heavenly Father. It has been Marge's faith and belief in their being reunited on the Last Day that has sustained her during this difficult time.

Marge, we know that Deacon Gene, and all your family and friends, are proud of you, and grateful for all you do. You have always led by love and by example, and we are all blessed to reap the fruit that you have sown. Congratulations.

SOCIETY OF SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

Today as we celebrate Pentecost, Jesus says to his disciples: "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

Is there a family you know who needs assistance? Please call the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul so that together we can bring peace to those who are hungry.

If your family or someone close to you is in need, please contact the parish office. A representative will return your call as soon as possible.

Hoy, al celebrar Pentecostés, Jesús dice a sus discípulos: "La paz esté con vosotros. Como el Padre me envió, así yo os envío a vosotros".

¿Hay alguna familia que conozcas que necesite ayuda? Por favor, llame a la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl para que juntos podamos llevar la paz a los que tienen hambre.

Si su familia o alguien cercano a usted está en necesidad, por favor póngase en contacto con la oficina parroquial. Un representante le devolverá la llamada lo antes posible para concertar una conversación confidencial. La confidencialidad y la compasión son las piedras angulares de nuestro ministerio.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL FOOD COLLECTION

During the first weekend of each month, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society collects non-perishable food for its pantry. Items may be placed in the blue barrel inside the Saint Pascal Church building at the Dakin Street exit during that time, or any time that the church is open.

Durante el primer fin de semana de cada mes, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl recogerá alimentos no perecederos para su despensa. Los artículos se pueden colocar en el barril azul dentro del edificio de la Iglesia de San Pascal en la salida de la calle Dakin durante ese tiempo, o en cualquier momento que la iglesia esté abierta.

RECONCILIATION: Every Saturday at 9:00 AM to 9:30 AM at Saint Pascal and Saint Bartholomew.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY: Either the bride, the groom, or parent of either must be a registered and active parishioner for at least six months before contacting the parish to make arrangements. For Pre-Marriage Preparation and to secure the wedding date you prefer, please call the Parish Office at least six months in advance before confirming a reception hall. Arrangements can be made at the Parish Office by the bride and groom.

COMMUNION, CONFIRMATION AND CONVERSION:

Children: All children should be enrolled in the Religious Education Program from first through eighth grades, if they are not in a Catholic School.

Adults: Please call the parish office to inquire about RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults).

MINISTRY OF CARE - HOMEBOUND PARISHIONERS:

FIFTEEN YEARS OR SWEET SIXTEEN: Fifteen-sixteen year old young ladies who would like to celebrate their quinceañera should have been confirmed and received their First Holy Communion as well as a series of preparation for the celebration. Please call Mrs. Maria Arrez at the Office of Religious Education for details.
