Message from Father Mike

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Ever since the close of the Second Vatican Council in 1965, the leaders of our Church have asked us to observe at the close of the month of January a week of prayers for Christian Unity. Those of you who are old enough to remember those exciting days as the Council fathers began to implement the decisions of Vatican II may recall the joy and relief many of us felt as we read in the documents the call to an entirely new way of relating to our "separated brethren" in the Christian family of faith, as well as to our "older brothers and sisters" in Judaism and all people of good will.

The Pontificate of Pope Francis has given new energy and enthusiasm to the ideals of Ecumenism articulated in the relevant documents of the Second Vatican Council. To that end, I share with you some important information sent to us by the Archdiocese of Chicago concerning the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Please take note of the following opportunities for prayer for Christian Unity. This year's theme is taken from the Gospel of St. Luke (10:27): "You shall love the Lord your God...and your neighbor as yourself"

Mensaje del Padre Mike

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Desde la clausura del Concilio Vaticano II en 1965, los líderes de nuestra Iglesia nos han pedido que observemos al final del mes de enero una semana de oración por la unidad de los cristianos. Aquellos de ustedes que tienen la edad suficiente para recordar aquellos días emocionantes cuando los padres del Concilio comenzaron a implementar las decisiones del Vaticano II, pueden recordar la alegría y el alivio que muchos de nosotros sentimos al leer en los documentos el llamado a una forma completamente nueva de relacionarnos con nuestros "hermanos separados" en la familia cristiana de la fe. así como a nuestros "hermanos y hermanas mayores" en el judaísmo y a todas las personas de buena voluntad.

El Pontificado del Papa Francisco ha dado nueva energía y entusiasmo a los ideales del ecumenismo articulados en los documentos pertinentes del Concilio Vaticano II. Con ese fin, comparto con ustedes algunas informaciones importantes que nos ha enviado la Arquidiócesis de Chicago sobre la Semana de Oración por la Unidad de los Cristianos. Por favor, tome nota de las siguientes oportunidades para orar por la Unidad de los Cristianos. El tema de este año está tomado del Evangelio de San Lucas (10:27): "Amarás al Señor tu Dios... y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo"

Gospel Meditation

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins His ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies.

Meditación Evangélica

3er Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Haciendo memoria, a lo largo de la vida, nos daremos cuenta que todos necesitamos arrepentirnos de algo. Sea grande o sea pequeño. También, muchas veces tuvimos que pedir perdón. Hoy, la Palabra de Dios nos dice que los ninivitas se convirtieron de su mala vida: "Los ninivitas creyeron en la advertencia de Dios y ordenaron un ayuno, y se vistieron de saco desde el mayor al menor" (Jonás 3,5). Todo el movimiento de la ciudad y sus habitantes se desencadena con la Palabra de Dios, que invita al arrepentimiento antes de ser destruida. Cuando el mal es mucho, se necesitan profetas y misioneros que evangelicen. La misión es inmensa.

La conversión consiste en abandonar el mal, las malas costumbres, las obras que llevan al pecado y dañan a los demás. ¿Crees tú que necesitamos algo así en nuestra sociedad actual? ¿Qué actitudes se necesitan para llegar a una verdadera conversión personal, familiar y comunitaria? Definitivamente, una de ellas es la decisión al cambio, seguida por la esperanza de que este sucederá. Jesús tiene esa esperanza e inicia el proceso de conversión de arrepentimiento llamando a sus primeros colaboradores e invitándolos a la conversión, es decir a que cambien su modo de vivir y de proceder: "El tiempo se ha cumplido, el Reino de Dios está cerca. Renuncien a su mal camino y crean en la Buena Nuevas" (Marcos 1,15). Renunciar al mal camino y creer que lo lograremos, ¡es el reto de este Evangelio! Oremos para que llegue la conversión a nuestro corazón.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time:

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus says: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men." As disciples, we are called to continue God's work on earth. Taking care of God's poor is indeed living gospel values.

As you place your gift in the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul poor box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.

During the first weekend of each month, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society collects non-perishable food for its pantry. Items may be placed in the blue barrel inside the Saint Pascal Church building at the Dakin Street exit during that time, or any time that the church is open.

Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario:

En el Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús dice: "Venid en pos de mí, y os haré pescadores de hombres". Como discípulos, estamos llamados a continuar la obra de Dios en la tierra. Cuidar de los pobres de Dios es, de hecho, vivir los valores del evangelio.

Al depositar tu ofrenda en la caja de los pobres de la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl, debes saber que eres un signo del amor de Dios por los que sufren, y les das motivos para creer y confiar.

Durante el primer fin de semana de cada mes, la Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl recolecta alimentos no perecederos para su despensa. Los artículos se pueden colocar en el barril azul dentro del edificio de la Iglesia de San Pascal en la salida de la calle Dakin durante ese tiempo, o en cualquier momento que la iglesia esté abierta.

Second Collection- Church in Latin America January 28, 2024

Next week, our special collection supports the Church in Latin America. For many living in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers make it difficult for people to practice the faith. Your donations fund catechesis, marriage and family life programs, and seminarian formation, so that people can grow closer to Christ. Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection to share your faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean. Thank you!

A Good Time for Fulfillment

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

There are some things that always come at the worst time. I've never gotten a telemarketing call and thought, "This is a really convenient moment for me to listen to a sales pitch." I've never seen the compulsory software update notice flash on my computer screen when I didn't have a deadline I was struggling to meet. My kids never come down with the flu unless it's the weekend and the line at Urgent Care is stretching out the door.

And I never, ever feel the calm, persistent shoulder-tap of the Holy Spirit without thinking, "Now? Now is not a good time. Can you try again when I'm..."

But then I stop and think: when I am what? When I am stronger? When I am happier? When I am smarter? When I am a different person?

When God calls us, He calls the person He sees in front of Him. "Come on," He says, and He doesn't mean "When you're finished" or "When it's convenient" or "Think about it." He means now. This moment.

This is what Paul is saying when he writes that "the world in its present form is passing away." He is saying that your plans mean nothing, the kingdom of God is at hand. Abandon your nets, let your catch escape into the sea. You're not who you thought you were, and you don't need what you thought you needed.

Your sins do not define you. Your fears are not fate. Your inclinations do not govern you. Your life can be changed. We live in the time of fulfillment, and fulfillment is coming for you — ready or not.

"Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment.'" — Mark 1:14

Un Buen Momento para la Realización

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Hay algunas cosas que siempre llegan en el peor momento. Nunca he recibido una llamada de telemarketingo y pensado: "Este es un momento realmente conveniente para mí para escuchar un argumento de venta." Nunca he visto el aviso de actualización de software obligatoria parpadear en la pantalla de mi computadora cuando no tenía una fecha límite que estaba luchando por cumplir. Mis hijos nunca contraen gripe a menos que sea fin de semana y la cola en Atención de Urgencia esté llegando hasta la puerta.

Y nunca, jamás siento la calmada y persistente palmada del Espíritu Santo en el hombro sin pensar: "¿Ahora? Ahora no es un buen momento. ¿Puedes intentarlo de nuevo cuando sea...?"

Pero luego me detengo y pienso: ¿cuándo sea qué? ¿Cuándo sea más fuerte? ¿Cuándo sea más feliz? ¿Cuándo sea más inteligente? ¿Cuándo sea una persona diferente?

Cuando Dios nos llama, llama a la persona que ve frente a Él. "Vamos," dice, y no quiere decir "Cuando hayas terminado," "Cuando sea conveniente" o "Piénsalo." Se refiere a ahora. En este momento.

Esto es lo que Pablo está diciendo cuando escribe que "el mundo en su forma actual va pasando." Está diciendo que tus planes no significan nada, el reino de Dios está cerca. Abandona tus redes, deja que tu captura se escape al mar. No eres quien pensabas que eras y no necesitas lo que pensabas que necesitabas.

Tus pecados no te definen. Tus miedos no son el destino. Tus inclinaciones no te gobiernan. Tu vida puede cambiarse. Vivimos en el tiempo de la plenitud, y la plenitud está llegando para ti, estés listo o no.

"Jesús se fue a Galilea para predicar el Evangelio de Dios y decía: "Se ha cumplido el tiempo." - Marcos 1:14

Segunda Colecta- Iglesia en América Latina 28 de enero de 2024

Esta semana, nuestra colecta especial apoya a la Iglesia en América Latina. A muchas personas que viven en América Latina y el Caribe, les hace difícil practicar su fe debido a una creciente cultura secular, a terrenos rurales difíciles y la escasez de ministros. Sus donativos financian la catequesis, los programas para el matrimonio y la vida familiar y la formación de seminaristas, a fin de que las personas se acerquen más a Cristo. Por favor, en oración, consideren dar su apoyo a esta colecta para compartir su fe con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en América Latina y el Caribe. ¡Muchas gracias!

Dear Our Lady of the Rosary Parishioners,,

As we approach the joyous celebration of Catholic Schools Week, I am delighted to extend a warm invitation to all members of our beloved Our Lady of the Rosary community.

Catholic Schools Week is a time to celebrate the unique and invaluable contribution of Catholic education. It is with great enthusiasm that I invite you to join us in marking this special week at Pope Francis Global Academy.

To kick off the festivities, we are hosting an Open House on Sunday, January 28th from 11:00 AM—1:00 PM at 6143 W. Irving Park Road. This is a wonderful opportunity for parishioners to explore our school, witness the incredible work of our students, and connect with the dedicated educators who contribute to the spiritual and academic growth of our students.

We believe that our school is not just a place of learning but a community that nurtures faith, knowledge, and character. Your presence at the Open House would be an honor as we come together to celebrate the values and traditions that make Catholic education unique.

Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to sharing the blessings of Catholic Schools Week with our Our Lady of the Rosary family.

Blessings,

La Semana de las Escuelas Católicas es un momento para celebrar la contribución única e invaluable de la educación católica. Es con gran entusiasmo que los invito a unirse a nosotros para conmemorar esta semana especial en la Academia Global Papa Francisco (Pope Francis Global Academy).

Para dar inicio a las festividades, estamos organizando una jornada de puertas abiertas "Open House" el domingo 28 de enero de 11 a.m. a 1 p.m. en 6143 W. Irving Park Road. Esta es una maravillosa oportunidad para que los feligreses exploren nuestra escuela, sean testigos del increíble trabajo de nuestros estudiantes y se conecten con los dedicados educadores que contribuyen al crecimiento espiritual y académico de nuestros estudiantes.

Creemos que nuestra escuela no es solo un lugar de aprendizaje, sino una comunidad que nutre la fe, el conocimiento y el carácter. Su presencia en la Casa Abierta sería un honor ya que nos reunimos para celebrar los valores y tradiciones que hacen que la educación católica sea única.

Gracias por su continuo apoyo, y esperamos compartir las bendiciones de la Semana de las Escuelas Católicas con nuestra familia de Nuestra Señora del Rosario.

Bendiciones,

Nilma Osiecki

WORD OF THE WEEK

Metanoia *\me-tə-'noi-ə *

Greek word in the New Testament translated as "change of mind" or "change of heart." It corresponds with the Old Testament word for repentance and the Latin conversion, turning or returning, from which derives the idea of conversion. Turning is key, assuming we have lost our way or gone off course.

Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-metanoia>

CONTEXT

Community takes transformation. Being people of communion requires metanoia that results from encounter and dialogue.

—Sister Nicole Trahan, F.M.I.

Far from being a demand to feel lousy about our screw-ups, metanoia invites us to radically transform the way we perceive others, ourselves, and the world. —David Anderson

Metanoia invites us to meet all situations, however unfair, with understanding and an empathetic heart. —Father Ronald Rolheiser, O.M.I.

WHY IT MATTERS

The willingness to change is a crucial ingredient in a life of integrity. On the journey through the years, we will all be confused or misdirected and swerve off the path of truth. Metanoia is the much-needed spiritual course correction. Consider metanoia the vital summons to recalculate where we're headed and what needs to change for us to get there.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: Jesus' call to conversion and repentance, does not aim first at outward works, but at the conversion of the heart, interior conversion (1430).

RELATED WORDS

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What does it mean to repent?

To repent means to change course. That can mean movement if we've been standing still, or stopping if we've been in frantic motion. It can mean changing our minds or our hearts, our direction or our behavior.

The word has several important root meanings. The earliest is the Hebrew word t'shuvah: return. It's a crucial concept to prophets like Amos, Hosea, and Jeremiah. Their fellow citizens have wandered far from God's ways, and it's time for them to return home. Metanoia is the New Testament Greek term that carries a similar meaning. John the Baptist first issues the call to change direction, signaled by Baptism. Jesus uses this term when He invites His listeners to change their dispositions—to turn their hearts and lives around—in response to His teaching. Repentance carries the additional meaning of expressing regret for past actions and attitudes—along with the expectation that real change is forthcoming. In addition, the word conversion means turning around, implying a reorientation of intentions and actions. In the sacrament of Reconciliation, we include the stipulation of "making reparation" for what we've done or failed to do that has caused harm.

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

FEAST OF THE CONVERSION OF SAINT PAUL THE APOSTLE (JANUARY 25)

Take the next turn toward truth

The amazing thing about Saint Paul's conversion was that he went from persecutor of Christians to a devout Christian himself. The change in him was so incredible not everyone believed it at first. His turnaround was a complete about-face toward Jesus.

READINGS: Acts 22:3-16 or 9:1-22; Mark 16:15-18 (519 <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/012518.cfm>). "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?"

FAITH IN ACTION

With God's help, you can bring about conversion in your own life. Start with a simple act of forgiveness.
