Message from Father Mike

Dear Parishioners of Our Lady of the Rosary,

I imagine that by now you have heard the announcement made by the City of Chicago about their agreement with the Archdiocese of Chicago to lease two of our properties on the Saint Bartholomew campus, the former convent and the Addison Street School building, as interim shelters for families who are seeking asylum in the United States. As you know, late last Fall, we told the Archdiocese that we, as a parish, were willing to present these two vacant buildings for Cardinal Cupich's consideration as options that he might offer to Mayor Brandon Johnson as possible interim shelters for Asylum seekers bused to Chicago.

You may recall the community meeting held in Saint Bartholomew Church shortly before Christmas. At that time, we were informed that the two buildings we suggested had been chosen by City officials and that work would begin shortly on preparing them for use as interim shelters for the Asylum seekers.

It took some time, but at last work will begin on adaptations needed to house Migrant families in the former convent and Addison Street buildings. We are told to expect that the migrant families needing shelter will begin moving in "mid-April."

The City of Chicago has hired the Zakat Foundation, an international agency known for outstanding work in sheltering migrants, to operate the interim shelter. Of course, we need to acknowledge that they will manage all aspects of the shelter. But I am greatly encouraged by the enthusiasm that their representatives have shown in our offers to be of assistance and service. I look forward to our parishioners being of great help in providing care to our newest neighbors.

Watch the bulletin for invitations to assist!

Fr. Mike O'Connell

Mensaje del Padre Mike

Queridos feligreses de Nuestra Señora del Rosario:

Me imagino que a estas alturas ya han escuchado el anuncio hecho por la Ciudad de Chicago sobre su acuerdo con la Arquidiócesis de Chicago para arrendar dos de nuestras propiedades en el campus de San Bartolomé, el antiguo convento y el edificio de la Escuela de la Calle Addison, como refugios provisionales para familias que buscan asilo en los Estados Unidos. Como saben, a finales del otoño pasado, le dijimos a la Arquidiócesis que nosotros, como parroquia, estábamos dispuestos a presentar estos dos edificios vacantes para la consideración del Cardenal Cupich como opciones que podría ofrecer al alcalde Brandon Johnson como posibles refugios provisionales para los solicitantes de asilo transportados en autobús a Chicago.

Tal vez recuerde la reunión comunitaria que se celebró en la iglesia de San Bartolomé poco antes de Navidad. En ese momento, se nos informó que los dos edificios que sugerimos habían sido elegidos por funcionarios de la Ciudad y que en breve comenzarían a prepararse para su uso como refugios provisionales para los solicitantes de asilo.

Tomó algún tiempo, pero por fin comenzarán los trabajos de adaptación necesarios para albergar a las familias migrantes en el antiguo convento y en la escuela de Addison Street. Se nos dice que esperamos que las familias migrantes que necesitan refugio comiencen a mudarse a "mediados de abril".

La ciudad de Chicago ha contratado a la Fundación Zakat, una agencia internacional conocida por su destacada labor en el refugio de migrantes, para que opere el albergue provisional. Por supuesto, tenemos que reconocer que ellos se encargarán de todos los aspectos del refugio. Pero me siento muy alentado por el entusiasmo que sus representantes han demostrado en nuestros ofrecimientos de asistencia y servicio. Espero que nuestros feligreses sean de gran ayuda para brindar atención a nuestros vecinos más nuevos.

Gospel Meditation

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, "If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!" As a lifelong late-arriver, it's something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the "it counts" is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous "Road to Emmaus" story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as He connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with His own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus' presence in the "breaking of the bread."

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that's precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus Himself sets our hearts ablaze with His Word so that we know Him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!

– Father John Muir

Meditación Evangélico

Si algo necesita el mundo ahora es paz. La sociedad debe girar su corazón hacia Dios para encontrarla. Se debe de dejar el egoísmo de lado y ver que atacándonos unos a otros no se llega a nada. Los discípulos de Emaús, luego de encontrar a Jesús, fue que sintieron la paz en sus corazones y se dispusieron a contar la feliz noticia a los demás. ¿No sentíamos arder nuestro corazón cuando nos hablaba en el camino y nos explicaba las Escrituras? (Lucas 24:32). Y en otro pasaje del Evangelio, Jesús, se presenta en medio de ellos y les dice: "Paz a ustedes". Señor, ayúdanos a encontrar esa paz que nos brindas, que nuestros malos sentimientos sean tranquilizados por tu paz prometida.

"Este cambio de paso, del yo a Dios, del sí al sí, ¿cómo ocurrió en los discípulos? Encontrándose con Jesús: los dos de Emaús primero le abren su corazón; luego le escuchan explicar las Escrituras; luego le invitan a su casa. Son tres pasos que también nosotros podemos dar en nuestras casas: primero, abrir el corazón a Jesús, confiándole las cargas, las dificultades, las desilusiones de la vida, confiándole los sí; y luego segundo paso, escuchar a Jesús, tomar el Evangelio en la mano, leyendo hoy mismo este pasaje, en el capítulo veinticuatro del Evangelio de Lucas; tercero rezar a Jesús, con las mismas palabras de aquellos discípulos: Señor, quédate con nosotros (Lucas 24:29). Señor, quédate conmigo. Señor, quédate con todos nosotros, porque te necesitamos para encontrar el camino. Y sin ti es de noche". Papa Francisco 04-23-2020.

GOSPEL

Turn to God in the name of Jesus Christ so that you will be forgiven. When you hurt someone, say to God and to the person, "I made a mistake. I am very sorry. Will you forgive me?" After God forgives you, He will show you good things to do in His Son's name. Choosing ways to honor and serve God will lead you to heaven.

PRAYER

Father God, forgive me and show me the ways to serve you in the name of your son, Jesus Christ.

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

Second Sunday of Easter

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus explains the meaning of the scriptures. Like the disciples, when we offer and receive forgiveness our hearts burn because we encounter the risen Christ within us.

During Mass we turn to each other and say "Peace be with you!" As you put your gift into the Saint Vincent de Paul box you say "Peace be with you!" to those who are poor and hungry.

If you or a member of your family is in need of services from the Parish food pantry or wishes to obtain information about the Society, please leave a message at the parish office and one of our volunteers will contact you.

During the first weekend of each month, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society collects non-perishable food for its pantry. Items may be placed in the blue barrel inside the Saint Pascal Church building at the Dakin Street exit during that time, or any time that the church is open.

Sociedad de San Vicente de Paúl

Tercer Domingo de Pascua

En el Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús explica que el significado de las Escrituras. Al igual que los discípulos, cuando ofrecemos y recibimos el perdón, nuestros corazones arden porque encontramos a Cristo resucitado dentro de nosotros.

Durante la Misa nos volvemos unos a otros y decimos: "¡La paz sea con ustedes!" Al poner tu regalo en la caja de San Vicente de Paúl, dices "¡La paz sea contigo!" a los pobres y hambrientos.

Si usted o un miembro de su familia necesita servicios de la despensa de alimentos de la parroquia o desea obtener información sobre la Sociedad, deje un mensaje en la oficina parroquial y uno de nuestros voluntarios se comunicará con usted.

Durante el primer fin de semana de cada mes, la Sociedad San Vicente de Paúl recolecta alimentos no perecederos para su despensa. Los artículos se pueden colocar en el barril azul dentro del edificio de la Iglesia de San Pascal en la salida de la calle Dakin durante ese tiempo, o en cualquier momento en que la iglesia esté abierta.

Saint Paul, the Apostle

Saint Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles, was the most prolific Christian missionary of all time. Due to a miraculous experience that he had on the road to Damascus, he went from persecuting early Christians to traveling all over the region preaching the Gospel of Jesus.

San Pablo, el Apóstol de los Gentiles, fue el misionero cristiano más prolífico de todos los tiempos. Debido a una experiencia milagrosa que tuvo en el camino a Damasco, pasó de perseguir a los primeros cristianos a viajar por toda la región predicando el Evangelio de Jesús.

Planned Giving

Every day, we have the opportunity to be the face of Jesus to others. You can help to support our parish and cover our increased operating costs by making a qualified charitable distribution ("QCD") gift from your individual retirement account.

A QCD gift (a.k.a. IRA charitable rollover) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level. If you are age 73 or older, the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution.

If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to Our Lady of the Rosary, please contact Marguerite Q. Zappa, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312-848-3068 or mzappa@archchicago.org.

Donaciones planificadas

Todos los días tenemos la oportunidad de ser el rostro de Jesús para otros. Usted puede ayudar a apoyar a nuestra parroquia y a cubrir nuestros costos operativos incrementados al hacer una donación de distribución caritativa calificada (QCD, por sus siglas en inglés) de su cuenta de retiro individual.

Una donación de QCD (también conocida como reinversión caritativa de IRA) permite a las personas en una edad de 70½ años o más autorizar a su administrador de IRA para que haga una transferencia directa de fondos de su IRA a organizaciones benéficas calificadas, libre de impuesto. Esta manera de donar no genera ingreso sujeto a impuesto, lo cual puede reducir su nivel de ingreso anual. Si tiene 73 años o más, la cantidad que transfiere puede contar hacia su distribución mínima requerida.

Si le gustaría recibir más información sobre cómo hacer una donación de QCD a Our Lady of the Rosary, por favor comuníquese con Marguerite Q. Zappa, oficial de Donaciones Planificadas, Arquidiócesis de Chicago, al 312-848-3068 o mzappa@archchicago.org.

WORD OF THE WEEK

Liturgy of the Eucharist <sup>ˈyü-kə-rəst</sup>

Eucharist, Greek for “thanksgiving,” is the formal name for the Mass. Also part three of the four-part movement of the Mass: the Introductory Rite, Liturgy of the Word, Liturgy of the Eucharist, and Concluding Rite. The Liturgy of the Eucharist includes the people's offering, the Eucharistic Prayer, and the Communion rite. Pronunciation: <https://tinyurl.com/Take5-Liturgy-of-the-Eucharist>

CONTEXT

Liturgy is, therefore, both word and action . . . the Liturgy of the Eucharist is the action that flows from the word.

The Liturgy of the Word centers its action at the ambo, the Liturgy of the Eucharist at the altar. The first is fundamentally verbal, the second primarily visual. The first is story, the second tangible sacrament.

—Alice Camille

WHY IT MATTERS

We celebrate our faith in two main units of liturgy that serve as the spiritual lungs of the church: Word and Eucharist. The first tells the story of how we came to be the People of God. The second gives thanks for this astonishing reality. In addition, the church teaches in Lumen Gentium that the faithful, “as true witnesses of Christ,” are “obliged to spread the faith by word and deed,” which includes taking part in the Eucharistic sacrifice, “the source and summit of the Christian life.”

From the General Instruction of the Roman Missal: The Church has arranged the entire celebration of the Liturgy of the Eucharist in parts corresponding to precisely [the] words and actions of Christ (no. 72).

RELATED WORDS

Ritual | Mass | Eucharistic Prayer | thanksgiving

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Why are Catholics focused on Eucharist?

A Eucharistic spirituality is ground-level for Catholic life. It's built on three gospel accounts of the Last Supper, in which Jesus employs well-known forms of Jewish prayers of praise and thanksgiving and urges His friends to “do this in memory of me.” While John's gospel doesn't recount this narrative, he does have an extended teaching on Jesus as the bread of life.

Early Church teachers like Justin Martyr, Tertullian, Cyril, Ambrose, and Augustine agreed that Eucharist had several meanings. One is the impact of the Passion of Christ for human history. Another is the unity Christians share as the Body of Christ. Engaging this sacrament has profound moral implications for those who do.

In the medieval church why Jesus makes this self-offering was obscured in debates about how it's accomplished ritually and theologically. Most believers adored the Host but fewer embraced a life of thanksgiving. The Second Vatican Council sought to restore “full, conscious, and active” participation so that the People of God might remember that the why of Eucharist is more vital than the how.

REFLECTION OF THE WEEK

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER (APRIL 14)

Grace-filled beginnings

The disciples on the road to Emmaus and those in the Upper Room experienced Jesus in bodily form and also in His role as rabbi. He helped them “connect the dots” of their Jewish tradition so they could see that the Resurrection was the fulfillment of the hopes of their ancestors.

READINGS: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19; 1 John 2:1-5a; Luke 24:35-48 (47 <https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/041424.cfm>). “He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures.”

FAITH IN ACTION

Allow Easter to help you locate yourself in the vast sweep of history and see that you are the intended beneficiary of God's grace since the beginning of time.
